All orders, payments, and communications to the Editor, are requested to be sent (Post-paid) to the Rev. JOHN JENNINGS, Toronto. We intend, in the meantime, to publish the Magazine on the 15th of every month, and have to request that all literary contributions be forwarded ten days previously.

The Canadian Presbyterian Magazine.

TORONTO, OCTOBER, 1851.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—The letter from "A Lay-member of the Presbyterian Church of Canada" we respectfully decline, but heartily do we wish the time were come, when "Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim."

We shall have private correspondence regarding some other communications.

We hope Presbytery Clerks will duly favour us, for publication, with an account of all that transpires in their several Presbyteries, of a nature likely to be interesting to the Church generally.

DEMISSION.—With deep regret we have to state that the Rev. Mr. Fletcher has been obliged to demit his charge of the congregation of Goderich. He has been very seriously afflicted, and is yet in a precarious state, and altogether unable for pastoral work. We trust that complete cessation from public speaking may aid his recovery, and that he may, ere long, take his place among his brethren, and in the church.

THE INFLUENCE OF THE HEBREW MIND ON THE WORLD.

PART III.

The third and last part for consideration is, the influence of the Hebrew mind on the future.

To foretell events requires the qualifications of a prophet; and therefore, when we lift the veil that hangs between the vision and the fact, and which conceals the actual future of the Jews, it is by the aid of sacred prophecy alone that we can do it, and from the whole series of revelation
