MOTTO FOR 1893.

(By the Archbishop of Canterbury.)

The new "year of our Lord." What shall we ask of Him faithfully according to His will?

Patience, comfort and relief for all who suffer loss.

That generosity may grow faster than riches.

That all our youth may be brought up in faith and reverence.

That the Word and Works of God may yield ever new treasures to seekers.

Assurance for the timid.

Insight for the doubting.

Sympathies for the strong.

Justice of man to master and master to man.

Joyful service and godly quietness in the Church.

Mrs. Tilton during the month had attended the annual meeting at London of the Huron Diocese, and also auxiliary meetings at Hamilton and Toronto. All were pleased to hear of the interest taken in the work in those cities and hope that more of the ladies will attend meetings in Ottawa, especially during Lent.

Subjects for reading and prayer for February, British Columbia and China.

A pleasing incident was the receipt of 49 cents, the savings of a servant girl who wished thus to show her great interest in the Diocese of Algoma.

THE NEW DIOCESE OF OTTAWA.

The raising of the necessary endowment of $40,000 is proceeding very successfully. A great deal of preliminary work has been done in Ottawa, such as interviewing those from whom large contributions are expected. From all who have been
