St. John's Sunday School reopened the first Sunday in September. Most of the teachers had returned from their holidays and were in their places. Mrs. Tilton's bible class in the Church, assembled in good numbers, and Rev. A. W.
 Mackay's class in the basement had a fair attendance.
 The Junior bible classes under Miss Thompson and Mr. W. H. Bowie promise well. On Friday evenings in St. John's Church, the subject for the short address is always the Sunday School lesson for the following Sunday.

At Anglesea Square the Sunday School is large, and the Thursday evening service at 7.30 better attended than usual.

The men's bible class at Christ Church, started work again, for the season, on Wednesday evening, September the 5th with a very good attendance for an opening meeting.

The Sunday School also started in full swing on Sunday, September 2nd.

At Cap a l'Aigle, Quebec, there is a quaint little Church; the nave was originally a barn, the chancel a milk house, and the tiny Rectory close by was a stable. A lady gave the buildings some years ago and they have proved a useful gift. The interior of the Church is neatly fitted up, and on Sundays more than filled. There are three services each Sunday, at 8 a.m., 11 a.m. and 7.15 p.m. At the evening service there is no sermon, yet the attendance is nearly as good as at the full morning service.
 Rev. Dr. Allnutt has charge each summer, but the Rev. Mr. Wilkinson of Lennoxville officiated during August. There is daily prayer at 9.30 a.m., of which a good number of the summer visitors avail themselves.

G. F. S. NOTES.

This being our first experience of a summer vacation in our Society, we went to our September meeting in some doubt as to how many would remember the call to begin again our autumn work. It was therefore a great satisfaction to find that two month's holiday made us glad to meet again, and eager to begin work, and though our programme had to be very impromptu, every one seemed pleased to hear again some "good words" from our Chaplain, and our President, and when one of our associates kindly gave us some popular airs on the piano, it was regarded apparently, as an excellent cover for conversation, and a cheerful babel arose at once. Very interesting and instructive little addresses were also given us by two visitors, one of them an old associate, at present living in Toronto, and having a G. F. S. branch there. We hope the monthly meetings may be kept up with equal spirit during the coming season.

EPISCOPAL ENDOWMENT FUND.

The Rev. E. A. W. Hanington is still hard at work completing the canvas for funds for the new diocese, and is meeting with the same success as before. It is to be hoped that all subscriptions not yet paid in, will shortly be forthcoming, so that nothing may hinder the speedy accomplishment of this good work. An effort ought to be made to have our new Bishop before the end of the present year.
