ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

ETERNITY is crying out to you louder and louder, as you near its brink. Rise, be going! Count your resources; learn what you are not fit for, and give up wishing for it; learn what you can do, and do it with the energy of a man. T. W. Robertson.

GRANT, O my God, that neither the joy nor the sorrow of this period shall have visited my heart in vain! Make me wise and strong to the performance of immediate duties, and ripen me by what means Thou seest best for the performance of those that lie beyond.—Margaret Fuller.

THE Mason & Hamlin Upright Pianos are pronounced to be like the organs of the same company, the best of their kind for achievement and purity of tone attained in their class, especially commended.—Boston Journal.

The trifles of our daily lives, The common things scarce worth recall, Whereof no visible trace survives, These are the mainstays, after all.

DR. S. B. BRITTON says: "As a rule physicians do not by their professional methods build up the female constitution, and they seldom cure the diseases to which it is all too liable, on our variable climate and under our impure and unwholesome civilization. Special remedies are often required to restore organic harmony and to strengthen the enfeebled powers of womanhood, and for most of these we are indebted to persons outside of the medical profession. Among the very best of these remedies I assign a prominent place to Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a powerful and radical cure for Nervous Debility, and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested it with wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, felt it his duty to make it known to his special fellow-sufferers. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power Block, Rochester, N. Y.
