

CAMERON & FERGUSON,
Wholesale and Export Stationers,
PUBLISHERS AND MANUFACTURERS,

Beg to direct attention to their facilities for the execution of Shipping Orders in the following Leading Departments, viz. :—

I.—Account Books and Made-Up Stationery.

These goods being manufactured entirely in their own extensive premises, they have confidence in offering them as UNSURPASSED FOR CHEAPNESS AND QUALITY. Their specialities in Shopkeepers' Books ruled for Colonial and British money, in COPY AND CIPHERING, METALLIC AND MEMORANDUM BOOKS, &c., are well known in the markets at home and abroad.

II.—Papers.

Every description of Paper—Writing, Printing, Packing, and Miscellaneous—kept in stock in large parcels. In NOTE and LETTER PAPERS they offer value that will compare favourably with that of any house in the Trade.

III.—Envelopes.

Their reputation in this article is so well established in the Trade abroad and at home, that a trial order will satisfy any purchaser of their superior value. An average stock of 10,000,000 or upwards in warehouse, and quantities continually being turned off at machines.

IV.—Miscellaneous Goods and Stationers' Sundries.

For these they refer to their Wholesale and Export Catalogue, where they are described and quoted in detail. They bestow great care in the get-up of these goods, which are sent out neatly carded, boxed, or otherwise displayed to facilitate sales, and present a tasteful appearance in the shops or stores of the retail trade.

V.—Publications.

These are all of a cheap and popular class, and the extraordinary numbers sold are a guarantee of their being desirable stock for the Trade in all parts of the world.

* * Shipping orders are executed with care and promptitude by a special staff of assistants. Trial orders, accompanied by remittance, or business references to houses in London, Glasgow, or Edinburgh, are respectfully solicited.

 Catalogues may be had on application.

N. B.—All communications from abroad to be addressed to their Glasgow House.
