

son's Five Great Monarchies of the Ancient Eastern World, Vol. 2, Froude's History of England, from the fall of Wolsey to the death of Elizabeth, Vols. 1 and 8. Smith's History of the World, Vol. 2. Dyer's History of Modern Europe, from the fall of Constantinople in 1453 to close of the Crimean War, Vols 3 and 4. Alison's History of Europe, from 1815 to 1852, Vol. 5, of cheap edition. Macaulay's History of England, Vol. 4, of people's edition. Polkard's War in America, Vol. 3. Tytler's History of Scotland, to the Union, Vol. 3, of new edition. Of the recent works in this department we find Vol. 2 of J. W. Kaye's History of the Sepoy War in India, 1857-8 and Dr. Russell's review of the Russian account of the defence of Sebastopol; from the pen of General Todleben, two works of special interest to all Englishmen, as well as to those who make history a study. Thompson's Victoria History of England, from C. 64 to A. D. 1868, we judge, will be of considerable educational value, besides being a most attractive and popular volume. Of interest to Canadian readers will be found Thomas D'Arcy McGee's Popular History of Ireland and a people's edition of Garneau's History of Canada, translated by Bell, and published by Mr. Lovell of Montreal. We regret to find that the publisher of the former of these works has shut his book out of the proper channels of sale,—the legitimate trade. This is unwelcome and unlike the generous interest in the trade manifested by the latter publisher, Mr. Lovell, who has thrown the whole of his edition into the hands of our booksellers. We are promised, shortly, by Mr. Lovell, a new History of Canada, the production of Mr. J. G. Hodgins, an educationist of the highest standing in the Province. Of the forthcoming books in this department, we note among the chief,—Europe beyond the Sea; or, the Exodus of the Western Nations, by the Right Hon. Viscount Bury. The History of Greece to the close of the Peloponnesian War, by Dr. Curtius. The History of the present American War to the conclusion of the campaign of 1863, with numerous plans of Battles, by Lieut. Col. Fletcher, Scots Fusilier Guards. The great Governing Families of England, by J. L. Sandford and M. Townsend. The story of Cawnpore, by G. U. Trevelyan. Our British Ancestors, who and what were they? The traditional history of the Early Britons, by the Rev. S. Lysons, M.A.

Important Bibliographical Work. Mr. Edwards' "Librarians and Founders of Libraries" is about to be given to the world. The work is of immense interest, and we predict for it an extensive sale. The scope of the book will be seen from the following enumeration of some of the chapters. The Ancient, Medieval and Modern Libraries; the Monastic libraries at home and abroad, also of those of some famous authors of various periods and countries; concerning the Libraries of some celebrated Monarchs and Royal Personages; History of the State Paper Office, of the Public Records of the Realm, of some private Libraries, &c. The cost of this work will be $5.

Moxon's Miniature Poets. Mr. Moxon, the poet's publisher, has commenced the issue in elegant form, of a new series of the poets, under the above title. The initiatory volume is "Selections from the works of Alfred Tennyson, D.C.L." and containing hitherto unpublished Sonnets, Songs and Pieces, &c., with portrait of the author, from a photograph.

The Fatherhood of God, being the first of the Cunningham Lectures by the Rev. Dr. R. Candlish of Edinburgh, is announced by Messrs. A. & C. Black.
