TEACHERS' BIBLE CLASS.

This class under the leadership of Vice-Chancellor Blake has an attendance of over 200 weekly. In fact our large parlor is taxed to its utmost seating capacity. Those who have heard the leader, in his Bible teaching, will not wonder at the interest manifested.

EVANGELISTIC BIBLE CLASS.

This class held every Sabbath afternoon is also increasing in attendance. Last Sabbath about 75 were present. Mr. S. R. Briggs' has charge.

MONDAY EVENING BIBLE CLASS.

This class is not so largely attended as it has been formerly. The classes in Phonography and Elocution have drawn off some (for the present), and other meetings in Shaftesbury Hall have somewhat interfered with its regular sessions.

WORKERS' MEETING FOR BIBLE STUDY.

Held every Sabbath morning was originally designed as a meeting for the Tract Distributors, but it has recently taken the form of a general meeting for prayer and Bible Study.

QUEBEC ASSOCIATION.

At a recent meeting of the Quebec Association, among other speakers was His Lordship the Bishop, who expressed his sympathy with the work, and his desires for its future success.

WILLIAM TYNDALE.

HO was William Tyndale?

The man who gave to England its greatest treasure:—The printed English Bible.

From his youth he felt he had "this one thing to do." He was educated at Oxford, the city in which the New Testament first published in Greek by Erasmus, met with its warmest welcome, and Wm. Tyndale read it, first only as a work of learning, but soon he found it to be something more. It spoke to him of God, of Christ, and of being born again, till it completely subdued him. And like all true converts, he could not keep the treasure to himself, but at once commenced to work among his fellow students. From Oxford he went to Cambridge, where he became
