NOTICE.

The Committee of Lloyd's beg to call the attention of merchants to the fact that, in all cases when they may have to make claims for loss or average on their Policies, it would very much facilitate a settlement by their Underwriters if they would instruct their consignees, in the absence of special provision in the Policy, to call in Lloyd's Agent at the port of arrival, with a view to his conducting the necessary surveys and assessing the damage sustained.

It is believed that a clause, insisting on the employment of surveyors appointed by Underwriters, has been inserted in the policies of most American and Continental Marine Insurance Companies. While English Underwriters do not make this measure compulsory, consignees should be aware that claims will probably be settled in this country with greater readiness if they are properly supported by the certificates of a Lloyd's Agent.

LLOYD'S, London, February, 1891.
