MEETING AT THE CORN EXCHANGE.

In another part of this issue we have treated at some length the recent resolution of the House of Assembly of Newfoundland to impose discriminating duties against Canada, on some of our leading exports. The article referred to was unavoidably shut out of our last issue, and we have now to call attention to a resolution adopted at a meeting held at the Corn Exchange on the 4th inst., which was attended by some of our influential merchants. We sincerely hope that the late imposition of duties on fish and oil was not adopted with the view of trying to prevail on Newfoundland to discriminate in favor of Canada and against the United States on flour and other Canadian products. This would be a
