THE QUEBEC STAR

A Weekly English and French Comic Paper.

VOL. 1—No. 1.

QUEBEC, SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1878.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

NOTICE: The readers of the Star will be kind this week, next week you will have eight pages of comic fun and humor.

JUDGE I KNOW.

I know judge; well—let him pass—
I may not call his grace an ass;
Though if I did I'd do no wrong,
Save to the asses and my song.

The judge is neither wise nor good—
He gambles, drinks, scorns womanhood;
And at the age of twenty-four
Was worn and batt' red as threescore.

I know waiter in Pall Mall,
Who works and waits and reason well;
Is gentle, courteous and refined,
And has a magnet in his mind.

What is it makes his graceless grace
So like a jockey out of place?
What makes the waiter—tell who can—
So very like a gentleman?

Perhaps their mothers? 'God is great!
Perhaps 'tis accident, or fate?
Perhaps because—hold not my pen!—
We can breed a horses but not men!

STREET CARS.

Mrs. your are not so proud as you use to be some time ago, when you would not allow any person in the cars that was not well-dressed. But thanks to the liberal Canadians, they started a buss and we can travel to the tool gate for five cents without being arrested, St. Sauveur. Look out for the collers office.

POLICE ASSLEEP.

Call at twelve, one or two, no police around the streets, we find them assleep on the flat of their back, and if you want them go for captain Jack, I can't go, he said I have lost my boots, my pistol and all. c'est pas ma faute, the sergent qui ma soulé, qu'on veut tu faire, c'est la faute de l'homme qui vend des sigats vis-à-vis St. Joseph street St. Roch.

Our city latte was in a slate of excitement by a marriage of celebrated widow who was courted by a Giraffe waid and a post by a waid. The giraffe smally the waid and married the widow. Now the public, wants to know who as the best right to ware the best colour.

A NEW REGIMENT.

The new regiment for his royal Highness Her Majesty son by the law, has given a authority to raise the following regiment dressed in kilts and moggessons prepared by the chief hawk who lives in Loret, often times sported with the guards. The following regiment will consist of Fraser the Baril the brave who has been conseiler, great orator, the Star would like to have Mr. Fréchette, Lt. Colonel, but he is to liberal for that, he is a true, burn Canadian, he would not like to show his legs, but her Majesty subjects will show their legs, for perferment in sock regiment, first crown, Cardinal, chief after, Moffet, Lt. Colonel O'Brien, Connelly, O'neil, exsinal relder.

Reder to her Majesty Queen of Row of the Queen in Island Shouth Africa.

GAGNON ET HUDON.

Great race between two express waging to see who would sell a yard of carrico for five cents to liberal St. Sauveur or any other were. Go for the red flag.

COUNTY OF ELECTIONS.

The great prizes offered at the Stonnhem jaces who will be the conservatives or liberal, Canadians two to one is offered on the favored

Good game of nakre plaiged by catel drovers in a small boat call the canoe, on dry land the beth were havy pat betting on hundred and eighty agains John Wagin. An other by Q'U go for that game, U bett you for to one that you lose your money left to the decision of the doctor Quarry.

NEW SING OF ELECTION HEARING.

Conservative canvasses and midnight ramblers, conseillers and next consilers. Star know's your program front Côte St. Geneviève to toward hill, so be cautions the Star will tell your name in full.

Star would advice certain young men that frequent the North Shore depot to be more carefull in their doings and expessions towards strangers. Their name will appear before the public.

THE ST. ROCH CACKLING CLUB

Ladies, the Star is looking out. Be cautions what you'll say or who you inter fear with, for he is bound to give your names in full if you don't mind your own bussiness.

Lusy Lonx,
The girl that don't sing.

ADVICE TO GROCESS. — (Bridge Street in particular.)

Don't change your men so often and put less water in your gin.

WESTERN FIGHT.

It is not often we tollt about fish but the smaless of fish on a triple fish, is an haran, now have got two haran in the market one is a liberal haran and the other is a conservative haran this last car he made a great deal of money, we don't be grade his money, if he don't change his color, but the other haran has never change is color he is red and has allways been red, and he will be red for ever, keep at the prix of House rent.

The city papers creing out for police cout which is not necessary with all the vice, vileny and robbery, committed in the province of Quebec is laid to the city of Quebec. Now the Star will prouve to the liberal thukings voters of Québec citq, that the Canadians of St. Roch are the most quiet industrious people in the world. That those raides that has been committee on our quiet and armeless habitants of Charlesbourg and Beanport who are robed and insulted nightly by ruffians who does not belong to St. Rochs. Will like to know who are the responsible parties. Beware, are going to expose the parties, the Star is going to expose the parties (dont do it again).

Look out for the North Shore ragatters Star has heard that a member who would
