

V > To be a role model of successful, efficient service within government.

M > Our fundamental purpose is to facilitate travel of Canadians throughout the world by providing internationally-respected travel documents and services. We will also work in alliance with other government agencies to provide secure identification documents and services.