

forty-five (45) day period mentioned above. In the event that a shorter period for the submission of a tariff is accepted by the aeronautical authorities, they may also agree that the period for giving notice of dissatisfaction be less than thirty (30) days.

4. If a tariff cannot be established in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 above, or, if during the period applicable in accordance with paragraph 3 above, a notice of dissatisfaction has been given, the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to determine the tariff by agreement between themselves.

5. If the aeronautical authorities cannot agree on any tariff submitted to them under paragraph 3 of this Article or on the determination of any tariff under paragraph 4, the dispute shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article XVII of the present Agreement.

- (a) No tariff shall come into force if the aeronautical authorities of either Contracting Party are dissatisfied with it except under the provisions of paragraph 3 of Article XVII of the present Agreement.
- (b) When tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article, those tariffs shall remain in force until new tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE XIII

Each Contracting Party grants to the airline or airlines of the other Contracting Party the right of free transfer of funds obtained by each in the normal course of its operations. Such transfers shall be made on the basis of prevailing foreign exchange market rates for current payments and shall be subject only to the respective foreign currency regulations applicable to all countries in like circumstances, for the purpose of safeguarding the external financial position and balance of payments. The transfer of funds shall not be subject to any charges except those normally collected by banks for such operations.

ARTICLE XIV

Income or profits derived by an airline, which is resident for purposes of income taxation in the territory of one Contracting Party, from the operation by it of an aircraft in international traffic shall be exempt from any income tax and all other taxes on profits imposed by the government of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE XV

In a spirit of close co-operation, the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties shall consult each other from time to time with a view to ensuring the implementation of, and satisfactory compliance with, the provisions of this Agreement and its Annex.
