

- Canada and Mercosur are working to conclude an arrangement on trade and investment co-operation. The framework will encourage private sector dialogue and will provide a forum where both nations can assess barriers to trade and investment and collaborate on work programs of the FTAA and the WTO.