

The Minister concluded by saying, "The federal and provincial governments, in close cooperation with the Canadian industry and its Washington counsel, are focussing their efforts on developing a strong and effective defence in this case. We will continue to do everything that we can to ensure the best possible outcome to the investigation".

For further information, please contact:

Denis Comeau
Deputy Spokesman
(International Trade)
Department of External Affairs
Ottawa
(613) 995-1877