

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The sections to be repealed, at present read as follows:

“19. Credits for all the sums mentioned in the next preceding section shall issue from time to time according to the directions of the commissioners.

(2) The credits shall issue on one of the banks of Canada in favour of the Accountant and his assistant, or of such two officers as the commissioners from time to time designate.

(3) The commissioners shall from time to time apply for such credits as they deem necessary for that purpose in favour of the said Accountant and his assistant, or of the other officers designated by them, by an order signed by the Speaker and two others of the commissioners.”

“20. The officers in whose favour the credit is given shall give such security and in such form for the faithful performance of their respective duties as the commissioners require.”

The above sections are now obsolete, being superseded by the subsequent provisions of The Consolidated Revenue and Audit Act, 1931, which apply to the House of Commons.
