

November 30th, 1931.

T. F. Cotton, Esq., B.A., M.D., M.R.C.P.
86 Brook Street,
London, W.1., England.

My dear Cotton,

Let me acknowledge your letter of the 20th. I had already been advised of the postponement of this celebration. It would appear that these measures of national economy have proved troublesome to institutions, as I certainly know they have to universities.

Please remember me kindly to Mrs. Cotton, and with all good wishes,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.
