

University takes up every moment of my time available, and were I to join your Board I know that I would be nothing but a figurehead, for I would not have the time to do anything which would make for the Company's prestige or profit.

With all good wishes for your personal success, and for the success of the British Empire Insurance Company, and thanking you again most warmly for asking me to join you, I am,

Yours faithfully,