

lieu of money
Our consolation
my other avenue
society, and dege-
upon a people
gences, and the
I wish you the
son, and a suc-
and New Orleans
a long time. I have gard, is entitled

humble Servant,

G. ROME.

Dear Sirs, I have had the pleasure of receiving yours of the 21st inst. and will be glad to oblige
you in any thing
of your service
with all cordial
affection. Yours truly
G. Rome. I am
very sorry to hear
that Mr. Jackson
has been so ill
and I hope he will soon recover. I have no news
from Mr. Jackson
since his departure
from New Orleans
but I will keep you informed of any thing that occurs. I hope you will excuse my
not writing sooner
but I have been very busy.