

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL.

THE SOUTH-WEST AMBULATORY.

MAJOR-GENERAL SIR ISAAC BROCK.—A tabular monument. The General is represented expiring in the arms of a soldier; an American Indian looking on, filled with sorrow and grief. Above, are the helmet and sword of the gallant knight.

C. Rossi, R.A.

It has this brief inscription :—

Erected at the public expense to the memory of

Major-General
SIR ISAAC BROCK, who gloriously fell on the 13th of October,
M,DCCCXII,
in resisting an attack on

Queenstown,
in Upper Canada.

Cost £1,575.