

INTRODUCTION.

The following pages are offered to the emigrating public, not because they are thought to be adequate to supply the general want of information about this important Province, but in order to arouse in the right class an interest in it, and to indicate in brief those avenues for the employment of labour and capital which it is purposed to treat more exhaustively in future pamphlets.