

- (11) Legends Every Child Should Know. By H. W. Mabie. 90 cents. New York: Doubleday, Page & Co.

The "Every Child Should Know" series contains many excellent books, suitable for School Libraries.

The teacher should try to have as many of the above books as possible placed in the School Library.

66. HELPS AND PLAN BOOKS FOR TEACHERS

- (1) Primary Work. By Annie Sinclair Graham. 60 cents. Toronto: Macmillan Co.

This is a book full of hints and suggestions by a practical Canadian teacher, and deals with every line of work in Forms I and II.

- (2) Day by Day Books. By Alice M. Bridgham. Autumn, $1.25; Winter, $1.25; Spring, $1.50. New York: A. S. Barnes & Co.

- (3) Month by Month Books. By Sara H. Willis and Florence V. Farmer. Autumn, $1.25; Winter, $1.25; Spring, $1.50. These may be purchased in ten monthly parts at 25 cents each. New York: A. S. Barnes & Co.

- (4) The Plan Books for Primary Grades. By Marian M. George. Paper, ten numbers, September to June, 25 cents each. Cloth, Autumn, $1.25; Winter, $1.25; Spring, $1.50; set, $3.50. New York: A. S. Barnes & Co.

The teacher will find numbers (2), (3), and (4) very similar, and should purchase not more than one. They contain hints on work in each subject for every day in the year and are well illustrated. The young teacher should not attempt to follow them too closely, but should go to them for suggestions.
