

Blind

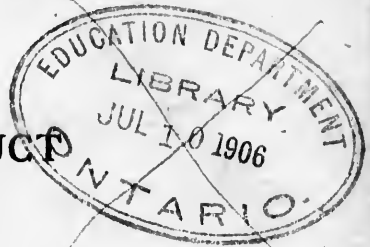

1808

AN

EXAMINATION

OF

THE CONDUCT

OF

GREAT BRITAIN,

RESPECTING NEUTRALS,

SINCE THE YEAR 1791.

United States

—0:0—
SECOND EDITION WITH CORRECTIONS AND AMENDMENTS.
—0:0—

“The ardour, with which the British ministry embarked in the war “against France, was presently manifested by, perhaps, the most “extraordinary proceeding, that ever appeared upon record ; and this
“was to force the neutral powers to unite in the combination to crush
“the French republic.” [British annual register of 1793.]

BOSTON :

PRINTED BY OLIVER AND MUNROE, NO 78, STATE-STREET.

1808.