

The Leading Grocery!

THE CHOICEST BRANDS OF CANNED FRUITS, VEGETABLES, FISH,
POTTED MEATS, SAUCES,
OLIVES, PICKLES, ETC. ALWAYS ON HAND AT

169 Dundas Street

Fitzgerald, Scandrett and Co.

PROGRAMME—Continued from Page 7.

SYNOPSIS

ACT I.—Scene:—Interior of the Gladison Avenue Hotel, New York. The Register. Distinguished arrivals. Robbing the dummies. The Herald "personal." The tramps in clover. Gay sports of Gotham—Trolley, Driscoll and Rosabel. The tramps royally received by Rosabel. The angry wives in pursuit. A climax of mystery and misunderstanding. During this act will be introduced the following songs and specialties: "Athletic Girls," by Rosabel and ladies of the Company. "A Rose Leaf from Home," Mrs. Chauncey Driscoll. Medley and dance, Rosabel and Sadie Sandow. Ensemble and dance, "Susannah," Pondlily and Company. Serenade, Compound and Fairweather.

ACT II.—Scene 1—The grand fete room in the 7th Regiment Armory.

GORGEOUS MINSTREL FIRST PART.

Bones.	Interlocutor.	Tambos.
George Thatcher.	Ed. Marble.	Carroll Johnson.
Wm. Griffin, John Daly.		Ed. Marks, Dave Foy.
Opening Overture.....	Theo. Metz, Orchestra and Chorus
Comic Song—"Hot Stuff,".....		Dave Foy
Descriptive Ballad—"Love's Language,".....		W. H. Thompson
Ballad—"Ships That Pass in the Night,".....		Fred. W. Oakland
Humorous Song—"Denah! Dinah! Do!".....		Carroll Johnson

Scene 2—The Ante Room. Rosabel's Plot. A New Recruit. Pondlily's "Views on the Telephone."

PROGRAMME—Continued on Page 11.

TRADE MARK.

TRIMMINGS
AND EDGINGS,

RUFFS
AND MUFFS,

ROBES
AND RUGS,

Beltz's

Sound brains furnish practical ideas. A hat being a close neighbor to brains, is entitled to harvest the crop. We use our brains in carefully selecting our styles of Hats; we study how to obtain a practical shape-retaining hat, to be sold for as little money as it possibly can according to the quality. BELTZ, the Leading Hatter.

Reliable merchants advertise in the FREE PRESS.