

- Army, French, force sent over with Dieskau, 281; character of the Indian allies, 308, 310, 313-315; at Quebec, 350.
- Assemblies, colonial, reluctance to grant funds, 242, 262, 272, 273, 277, 285.
- Attiwendaronka, kin to the Five Nations, 48; refuse to join the confederacy, 48; consequent annihilation, 49.
- Aubert, Thomas, alleged voyage on St. Lawrence River, 4-6.
- Aubry, French partisan, unsuccessful attempt to relieve Fort Niagara, 346.
- Austrian Succession, war of the, 248, 249.
- Baptists profit by the Great Awakening, 231.
- Baxter, Joseph, Puritan missionary in Maine, controversy with Rale, 239.
- Beaujeu, second in command at Fort Duquesne, 288; waylays Braddock, 289; death, 290.
- Béthencourt, Jean de, Norman knight, colonizes Canary Islands, 2.
- Biencourt, son of Poutrincourt, in France, 72, 75; and Argall, 79; rebuilds Port. Royal, 79; death, 93.
- Booth, Elizabeth, and the Salem witchcraft, 160. See also Salem Village.
- Boscawen, Edward, English admiral, expedition against Louisburg, 329.
- Boston, Ann Hibbins witchcraft case, 146-148; Goodwin witchcraft case, 148, 152-155.
- Boullé, Helen, marries Champlain, 80; in Canada, 89; religious zeal, 89.
- Bouquet, Henry, English colonel, with Forbes, 337.
- Bourlamaque, Chevalier de, French general, evacuates Ticonderoga, 347.
- Braddock, Edward, English general, sent to America, 281; preparation to march against Fort Duquesne, 283, 285; character, 283; underestimates the Indians and militia, 283-285, 287; mistake in route, 286; march, 286-288; not ambushed, 289; defeat, 290; bravery, 291; death, 292; retreat of his forces, 292.
- Bradstreet, John, trial for witchcraft, 148.
- Bradstreet, John, English colonel, ability, 333; captures Fort Frontenac, 334.
- Brattle, Thomas, liberal views, 203; gives land for Brattle Church, 204.
- Brattle, William, liberal views, 203.
- Brattle Church, Boston, founded, 204; conditions of membership, 204; recognized, 206.
- Brazil, Huguenot colony, 33.
- Brébeuf, Jean de, Jesuit missionary, arrives in Canada, 89.
- Brittany, France, race characteristics, 1; mariners, 2; interest in Newfoundland fisheries, 3; objects to trade monopoly in Canada, 36, 57.
- Bunker Hill and Ticonderoga, 323.
- Burnet, William, governor of New York, builds fort at Oswego, 262.
- Burroughs, George, arrested for witchcraft, 168; accusation, 173; execution, 186.
- Bury St. Edmunds, England, witchcraft trial, 138-140.
- Cahiagué, Canada, Huron village, Champlain at, 86.
- Calef, Robert, and Cotton Mather, 150; on the witchcraft trials, 163 n., 186.
- Cambridge, Mass., execution of a witch, 146.