500 Skirts for Women, Made of Black or Navy Silk, a Noteworthy Special at $3.95.

A price that scarcely represents the cost of the material. Imagine being able to secure a silk skirt—a really pretty silk skirt—for so small a sum nowadays! But here they really are, made of a fine heavy "Japanese taffeta"—a weave that is something between a Japanese silk and an ordinary taffeta, one of its crowning merits being that it does not easily split. Fashioned in a pretty new style, as you may see by the sketch; these skirts are shirred at the back beneath an all-round belt, the two shirred pockets giving smartness in front. Colors black and navy. Waistbands 22 to 30. Lengths 35 to 40. Though the quantity is large, the value is so great that they'll quickly disappear, so come early. Sale price3.95

Many of them are quite suitable for Spring wear, and any may be worn for the remainder of this season. There are beaver cloths, novelty mixtures, Whitney cloths, chinchillas and tweeds, and such a diversity of interesting style features! Fundamentally they are cut on similar lines, with large convertible collars and convenient pockets, but such varied effects are achieved in both collars and belts and their trimmings, the latter being of buttons, braids and velvets. PERILOUS VOYAGES IN STORMY TIMES

Col. (Rev.) G. H. Williams, Senior Chaplain, Preaches in Convocation Hall.

MUST FACE CRISIS

Blasphemy for Man to Ask for Quiet Place at Present. Time.

"I believe it to be blasphemy for a man to ask heaven for a quiet place where the storm may not be felt by him," declared Col. G. H. Williams, senior chaplain M.D. No. 2, during his convocation sermon yesterday morning in Convocation Hall. "It is unwise to ask that God give us shelter away from storms, as it is impossible to find any place where strife does not exist, but it is vital that God should keep us in the storm, fortified and strong, so that when the morning breaks it may find us faithful and true."

The preacher declared that the higher aim of life were ideal, and that it was impossible to take the ideals out of life and that the idealist was the vanguard of all promises. "What is this war?" he asked. "Is it simply a conflict of races? A conflict between German and Anglo-Saxons? I do not think so. I think the present war is but a challenge of ideals. On the one hand stands ambition; on the other stands justice, right, truth and liberty, and so this war today, as in every war, is conflicting ideals and conflicting standards. Today a man may choose his true ideals. Today we are going to witness the re-coronation of Jesus Christ. He has been lost in the past, and we have almost, if not quite, lost Christ, but today Christ has been resurrected and he is going to be crowned again."

The Same Challenge.

He pointed out that other nations had provided ideals but had failed to supply the subject, and there never was a time in the whole history of Christianity as today, when the whole world wanted men of integrity, of truth and character. The challenge to civilization and the challenge to the heart of every man, he contended, were identical. There is a profligacy and a degeneracy to be met in public life today that was never seen before," said the preacher. "And it has been said that this existing laxity of morals is due to the tension of the war, and indeed today we are standing where man is in peril of his soul, just like a little barque out at sea at the mercy of the waves and wind, and it is during this perilous voyage that a man should be loyal and true to God, and today we must obtain the highest and truest ideals, for I firmly believe the first resurrection has come today. We are living in an age when the call on our integrity is greater than has ever been experienced, and there never was a time so critical as we find today."

Dwelling on what he termed the "profligate and degenerate" spirit that dominated everything today, he referred to those who sought to benefit themselves and amass great gains and profits, to enrich themselves out of this sacred spirit of the war. "Let us be true to ourselves and to God," he said in conclusion. "Let us seek to be ready for that re-coronation of Jesus Christ and be able to say with the psalmist, 'I have set the Lord before me.'"

LIEUT. PARRISH KILLED.

Son of Caledonia Bank Manager Was Member of Royal Flying Corps.

Word has just been received of the death in England while making a flight of Lieut. George L. R. Parrish of the Royal Flying Corps, who was the only son of A. W. Parrish, manager of the Standard Bank at Caledonia, Ont. Lieut. Parrish entered the University of Toronto last year, in the spring began to train as an aviator, received instruction at Deseronto and Camp Borden flying fields, and went overseas in late October. Arrangements have been made for the body to be brought home to Caledonia for burial.

The employment of women on the Scottish railways has doubled since the war began.

RED CROSS FUNDS ARE ENTIRELY GONE

Three Million Dollars Must Be Raised in Three Coming Days.

MASSEY HALL TONIGHT

War Veterans Eager to Assist in Patriotic Fund Campaign.

"Somebody will call on everybody, and everybody is expected to give something." This refers to the big three-million-dollar campaign, which will start early Tuesday morning. The case of the Red Cross is most urgent," said H. H. Williams, chairman of the campaign committee. "They are entirely out of funds and positively must have assistance if they are to continue their good work. Besides that, we pledged ourselves not only to take care of the boys at the front, but to look after their dependents at home and we must not fail."

Fervent activity prevails in and about headquarters. The various committees are putting the finishing touches to their organizations and today the special subscription committee, headed by Senator Nicholas, will start its canvass among the large institutions, and wealthy citizens. By noon on Tuesday they hope to report a number of big subscriptions that will establish a standard of giving. But it is not from the big subscriptions that the three millions will be raised. It is from the thousands of small subscribers, the one, five, ten, or more dollars each month, that in the end makes the millions.

A new and highly appreciated offer of co-operation has been received from the Salvation Army, which will throw its entire organization into the campaign.

Rotary Club Work.

The Rotary Club is already living up to the precedent it set last year. It is expected that even more efficient service will be rendered this year, if what is being done is a sample of what is forthcoming. Fully half of the Rotary Club is serving on the publicity and of the campaign and has been for the past two weeks. The president, George Briggs, and the vice-president, W. H. Alderson, have been chairman of important committees. During the three days of the campaign the Rotary Club will have five of the most important downtown districts, and five efficient teams have been organized to completely canvass that territory. All subscriptions in that district will be taken, large and small, and big things are looked for
