HEBREW HELP FOR NELSON DAY FUND

Rabbi S. Jacobs Calls on Synagog Congregation to Open Coffers.

Rabbi S. Jacobs, addressing his con-Rabbi S. Jacobs, addressing his congregation in Holy Blossom Synagog on Saturday, made a strong appeal on behalf of the "Nelson Day" campaign, which starts tomorrow. "Next Tuesday will be Trafalgar Day." he said, "the anniversary of Nelson's great victory, when in the words of a great statesman of his time the great hero saved England by his courage and Europe by his example." On that day Nelson flashed from his flagship the signal which has always been resignal which has always been re garded as a precious legacy bequeathed to his country, "England expects every man this day to do his duty." These immortal words should awaken These immortal words should awaken at all times a mightily responsive echo in the heart of everyone who values British citizenship. I am sure, in common with all classes and creeds, you will make a ready and generous response to those who will call on you at your offices, stores and homes for contributions to assist in the patricular. for contributions to assist in the patriotic work, and to forward the objects of the Navy League of Canada.

In Heartfelt Gratitude.

"Our country expects every man this day, and every day, to do his duty, and surely it must be a duty obligatory on everyone to help men who in Biblical language 'go down to the sea in ships to do business in great waters' and who were wounded. great waters,' and who were wounded in the war, and are helpless and bed-ridden and do ask, not in compassion, but it heartfelt gratitude. They bray, ed not only the attack of the enemy but likewise the dangers of the deep Shall we not discharge a little of the deep. Shall we not discharge a little of the debt we owe to those British and Canadian marines whose 'ships were British ships, and hearts of oak our men.' and who by their courage and hardi-hood and self-sacrificing conduct pre-vented the devastation of our coasts. the landing of the enemy on British soil, and helped to a greater extent than is generally acknowledged to win the war. They did their duty nobly. Let us do ours now, generously,"

Temperament in a Piano

One speaks of temperament with a musician as indicating a fineness of feeling and complexity of moods that gives to his work something far removed from the common.

Yes, the reat artist is a man of moods—he is an artist because he is temperamental—because of his moods.

The same thing is true of a high-grade

HEINTZMAN & Co. PIANO

They Make No Other.

A great artist like De Pachmann is only at his best when before an instrument such as this, because it meets his every mood and responds to his finest shadings of music thought and sentiment — a piano that is the one essence of delight to the senses — always and everywhere at the best.
