Now the Bike Is No Novelty. Secretary H. B. Donly of the C.W.A., rr-rived in town last night. Asked why the interest in the convention this year seemed to slacken, he replied that it was lack of competition for the meet and for the offices. The towns are afraid of the meet game as no money has been made anywhere since Waterloo entertained. People will not give up their coin to see bicycle races as in the years when the wheel was somewhat of a novely. racers, will be a value of the second novelty.
