THE VOTE HAS BEEN TAKEN AND THE PEOPLE ARE NOW ON TOP

Macdonald Was Elected Mayor of Toronto by a Majority of 2706 Over the Vote of His Chief Opponent, Clarke.

Much Enthusiasm Over the Result—Thousands Cheer the Mayor-Elect, Who Says He Will Keep His Pledges to the Letter—The Aldermanic Fight in the Wards—New Blood in the Council—The Results.

The fight is over and the people have won. Macdonald had the people behind him in the race for the Mayoralty and his majority over his chief opponent, Mr. Clarke, totals 2706, while Ald. Hallam's total vote was 2256. In 1891, when Macdonald first ran for the Mayor's chair, he polled 7040 votes; in 1898, 8401 votes; in 1899, he polled 10,032 votes, which proved to be the people had become stirred up in their own interests. Yesterday Mayor-elect Macdonald polled 11,938 votes out of a total vote of 26,426, against two other candidates.

In the aldermanic field there was the usual crop of candidates, and several members of last year's Council have fallen by the wayside. Ald. Lynd, who was one of the Board of Control during Mayor Shaw's regime, is defeated, while Controller Woods got in just by the skin of his teeth, so to speak. Ald. Davies is out of it in Ward 2. Ald. Hanlan was a loser in Ward 4, while in Ward 5 R. H. Graham also fell in the fray. Four new men head the polls in their four respective wards. The vote for Alderman-elect John F. London in Ward 3 was a remarkable one indeed. Mr. London headed the poll with a total of 3328 votes. In Ward 4, where Ald. Hanlan saw his finish, Thomas Urcubati, a new man in civic affairs, headed the poll with 3190 votes, while W. L. Bell, another new-comer, was the top man in Ward 5, with 2175 votes to his credit. Alderman-elect John F. London in Ward 6 was a remarkable one indeed. Mr. London headed the poll with a total of 3328 votes. In Ward 4, where Ald. Hanlan saw his finish, Thomas Urcubati, a new man in civic affairs, headed the poll with 3190 votes, while W. L. Bell, another new-comer, was the top man in Ward 5, with 2175 votes to his credit.

Sound the loud timbre o'er corruption's dark sea, Toronto has triumphed; her people are free.

They cited John Hallam's long service in the Liberal cause, which he had aided both by personal and financial influence. It was stated that he had subscribed the Liberal campaign funds, more liberally than any other reformer in the city. Yet, was the conclusion, his lifelong friends had turned him down. Such is the trust in humanity!

IN FRONT OF THE WORLD.

Mayor-Elect Macdonald Addressed Thousands of Cheering Citizens.

After the victory, the Mayor-elect, Mr. Macdonald, addressed thousands of cheering citizens in front of the City Hall. He was surrounded by a throng of people, many of whom were waving flags and shouting slogans. The Mayor-elect expressed his gratitude to the people of Toronto for their support and pledged to keep his promises to the letter.

In Favor of Amalgamation. Following was the vote on the question of amalgamation of the High and Public School Boards by wards:

CLARKE ADMITS DEFEAT. But Declares He is Not Cast Down—Went Straight Home Early.

At the news of his defeat, Mr. Clarke admitted his defeat and went straight home early. He expressed his disappointment but remained composed and thanked the people for their support.

TOOK IT PHILOSOPHICALLY. John Hallam Fought a Good Fight and Lost—Takes Defeat Like a Man.

John Hallam is a philosopher. He received the returns ward by ward at his hands, some home on Isabella-street last night, and before 8 o'clock was made certain of his defeat and Macdonald's popular victory. To the world he said he was not going to cry over the matter. He knew he was defeated, and he would take his defeat like a man.

TELLS THE WORLD THAT HE WILL CARRY OUT HIS PLEDGES TO THE LETTER. Mayor-elect Macdonald was interviewed by The World last night after the vote had been counted up.

Wainstons Are High. Owing to the high out of wainstons this winter, the broad and stringy ice is becoming a very popular article. A most pleasant surprise to the public to-day is the announcement of a reduction in the price of Dundee and green scarfs at Quinn's, 55 Yonge-street. The seventy-five-cent goods are all reduced to fifty cents. The color and blending in these scarfs is full of charm, and is allied with the best qualities of the silk-maker's production. Our protectors are also reduced in price.

PAYMENT IS RE-ELECTED IN OTTAWA

The Voters of the Capital Declared in Favor of Civic Control of Public Franchises.

The municipal elections, held all over the Province yesterday, were not remarkable for the enthusiasm displayed, as in many places the Mayor, and in some cases whole Councils, had been returned by acclamation. A feature of the voting in Ottawa was the declaration by the electors in favor of civic control of electric and other franchises. Bonus bylaws were voted on in a number of towns, and generally carried.

OLD LADY BURNED TO DEATH

Mrs. Bencette Was Fryng Pork, When the Meat Took Fire and Blazed Up.

HER CLOTHING BECAME IGNITED, AND THE POOR WOMAN WAS FAINTLY BURNED BEFORE HER SON CAME TO THE RESCUE.

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 1.—Mrs. Alice Bencette, 70 years old, mother of C. V. Bencette, jeweler, Sandwich-street east, Windsor, was burned to death yesterday afternoon at her home in the Grand Marais settlement, Sandwich East, about three miles from Windsor. Mrs. Bencette, who was a widow, had quarters in the front portion of the house, the rest of which was occupied by her son Paul and his family. She was standing by the stove, frying pork for her dinner, when suddenly the meat caught fire. The flames shot up into her face, and in an instant her light cotton dress was ablaze. Her little grandchild, who was in the room and witnessed the accident, ran screaming for help to her parents in the other part of the house. The child's father hurried in and found his mother with her clothing nearly all burned off, writhing in her death agony on the floor. He caught the burning form in his arms and, making outside, extinguished the flames by rolling his burden in the light snow that had fallen. But help had come too late. It was a charred corpse he carried into the house. The poor woman's face and arms were burned to a crisp. Bencette's own clothes caught fire while he was trying to render assistance to his mother and one of his arms was badly burned. Mrs. Bencette was well liked and respected, where she had resided nearly all her life.
