IMPERIAL STATESMEN OFTEN UNWISE

Canada's Rights Should Be Clearly Defined and Then They Would Not Be Violated

Montreal, Feb. 20.-Le Soleil, Sir Wilfrid's Quebec organ, may or may not be in-spired, but its article of to-day indicates hostility to Asiatic immigration. Replying to The Globe's plea that the British Coumbia legislation was vetoed at Ottawa for Imperial reasons, Le Soleil says that such an argument might be accepted if the statesmen of the empire were always wise and had never committed errors as regards the colonies. Were they convinced that idvantage of the colonies, their decisions might be accepted without discussion when they ask for the disallowance of a measure directed against Immigration. But, tance without discussion or enquiry and Ernest Pacaud concludes his article as follows. "The rights of Canada in such questions should be so clearly defined that the public men of the empire would not have the face to violate them."
