THE TORONTO WORLD

During July and August this Store closes daily at 5 p.m. and Every Saturday Afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Early Closing Sale Commences Thursday

To double July sales is our ambition. Cutting off ten hours a week (one full business day) will not be any hindrance either. How shall we do it? By selling good goods at prices that will keep everybody hustling during the few hours we work daily. A staff that stops work at 5 p.m. five days a week and 1 p.m. on Saturdays is full of snap and vigor, and when the goods they sell are marked at prices so low as our Early Closing Sale figures it makes this a veritable elysium for both salespeople and shoppers. Follow Eaton's store news from day to day and note the big values we are offering. Make it a point to see the goods our announcements tell of and compare them with the best values you ever saw for the same money. Hot Time in Churches,
Two Methodist churches, situated in the same block are having lively rows. First it was the Gore-street congregation which went to pieces over the selection of a pastor, and now it's the Wesley Church, and the cause of the trouble is the organist. After scrying for 35 years, Joseph Morris resigned his post at the organ. He did so because some of the members intimated to him that he was a triffe behind the times. One of the officials interfered with the choir, and Mr. Morris handed in his resignation. He and his father and brother have been pillars in the church, and they have all withdrawn, at least for the preshave all withdrawn, at least for the present and a great many sympthizers are prejuring to go with them.
