Bolshevik Issue Will Be Fought Out at Present Congress.

Leghorne, Italy, Jan. 16 -Commurism and Socialism matched forces yesterday at the session of the Italian yesterday at the session of the Italian Socialist Congress. Tumultuous scenes were enacted, and during the uproar fist fights among the delegates were numerous. To observers of the proceedings there seemed to be no doubt from the beginning of the session that there would be fought out in this congress the issue of Bolshevism. Every mention of Communism and Signor Bombacci then mentioned the names of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, the German Social-ists, who were killed in Berlin during the disorders of 1919, who he characterized as martyrs. At the mention of their names there was pandemoni-um in the hall. The Communists raised cries of "hurrahs for Commuism," which antagonized the Social's and there ensued a fierce battle of words between the various factions thruout the hall. In the confusion some of the delegates stood on the benches. gesticulating and shouting until they were exhausted.
