

BOLSHEVIK AGENTS COMING TO CANADA; OFFICIAL TO THE U. S.

"Missionaries" Exceed in Number Even Those of Germany During War. ARE SMUGGLED ACROSS

Rotterdam, Nov. 8.—Determined efforts are being made by agents of the Russian Bolshevik government to send "missionaries" and agitators to the United States, according to evidence collected by United States diplomatic officials in Europe. The spy and courier system of the Moscow government is said to have been developed to an efficiency in the past few years that of the German general staff before the outbreak of the war, and on the lists of soviet agents are said to be the names of more than 10,000 before 1914 acted as spies for the central powers or Russia.

Agents, this campaign the United States has arrested its agents and officials at foreign ports. Associated with them in Holland are the Dutch police, who have in their possession documents showing that the soviet leader, looks to Rotterdam as a "world clearing house" for soviet finance and propaganda. Huge index files have been filed with the names and records of upwards of 15,000 Bolshevik "missionaries." New passport regulations have been adopted, and difficulties await the Bolshevik agitator who attempts to board a ship from a United States representative.

Come in on Fake Passports. Despite these regulations and constant vigilance, it is believed some Bolshevik agents have, in the recent past, succeeded in finding means to cross the ocean. Scores are thought to have slipped as sea-birds on board trans-Atlantic liners. Certificates have been secured by various means and it is said a bribe trade is carried on in stolen or counterfeited certificates as well as fake passports. Clever alterations and forgeries have been detected by officials whose duty it is to examine the papers of travellers wishing to visit the United States.

Attempts are made to secure places in ships' crews for Bolshevik agents, and often outright bribery is tried. An attaché of a United States consulate recently was offered the equivalent of $250 a day if he would assist in getting them on board. Sixty-six soviet agitators daily. Stewards of liners are declared to have sometimes yielded to alluring offers for hiding Bolshevik agents on their vessels during trips across the Atlantic. Falling to get passage to a port in the United States, the Bolshevik try to reach Canada, where they can easily get across the border. United States authorities abroad are said to have advised Washington that many soviet couriers are believed to have sailed from here to Canadian ports recently.

POSTAL WORKERS FOR UNION STATION

Toronto Postoffice Will Soon Be Operating at New Railway Depot.

Before three weeks have passed over the heads of Toronto citizens, the "working department" of the Toronto postoffice may be operating from the new Union Station. A perfect army of workmen are busy fitting up the sorting rooms and putting in the heat. It is believed, so that the World learned yesterday, that the railway companies will construct a siding at the new depot, so that both the incoming and outgoing mails may be dealt with direct from the new sorting office.

All mail in the future will be sorted at the Union Station. The collecting vans will deliver their letters there and the incoming mail will be started on its city and suburban way from the new postoffice home. In fact, as Col. Ross said yesterday, all the "working departments" will be centralized on Front street. A staff will still be retained at the old office on Adelaide street to deal solely with city letters posted there.

ALBERTA AUDIENCE HEARS THE PREMIER

Addresses Thousand People at Lethbridge—Meighen Speaks Well of Crerar.

Lethbridge, Alta., Nov. 8.—(Canadian Press)—Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, premier of Canada, and Hon. J. A. Calder, minister of immigration, tonight addressed here their first Alberta audience. The Majestic Theatre was crowded and held over a thousand or more men and women of the city and district. W. S. Ball of Lethbridge was chairman.

The west has given Canada an aggressive prime minister, read a banner at the side of the stage. Mr. Calder was the first speaker. The chairman compared him to Saul of Tarsus, in that he "had seen a great light."

Mr. Calder said the old political parties in Canada had met with a process of disintegration, new parties were springing up; a political evolution was taking place. There was a spirit of independence abroad—a very good thing for Canada, he believed.

RAILWAY SITUATION IN IRELAND SERIOUS

Dublin, Nov. 8.—The railway situation is represented here as being serious, owing to the refusal of the railwaymen to transport troops and munitions. A complete collapse at Christmas time of the profitable food traffic is feared. Although the general public is desirous of a compromise on the munitions question, the attitude of the railwaymen remains unchanged, and they are being supported by the Sinn Feiners.

The newspapers are printing very little concerning the protests of the public on the controversy.

Asked whether Trumble had a gun, she replied she did not see him with one. She was closely questioned upon this point, but maintained that as far as she could recollect he had no gun. She stated that two of the police inspectors appeared at the door leading from the apartment to the hall and that Mr. Spracklin stood in the kitchen doorway. Her evidence in this particular varied from that of Smith, who was positive that there were no inspectors at the door leading to the kitchen when he entered the private dining room, where the fatal shot was fired.

ARC DE TRIOMPHE HIS RESTING PLACE

French Chamber Decides the Question of Burial of Unknown Soldier.

Paris, Nov. 8.—The Arc de Triomphe will be the last resting place of "an unknown French soldier." The chamber of deputies so decided today by unanimous vote.

The vote came after an acrimonious session of the government bill providing for the transfer of the body of an unknown soldier from the Verdun battle site to a last resting place, either in the Pantheon or the Arc de Triomphe. So violent was the debate, the president of the chamber was obliged to suspend the sitting for a time. The Socialists advocated the Pantheon, while the remainder of the chamber advocated the Arc de Triomphe.

HAMILTON

Hamilton, Nov. 8.—That gas for industries was now a thing of the past, and that the present problem was to try and provide gas for the domestic consumer, was the announcement of E. S. Estlin, gas commissioner, who held a session in the board of control room at the city hall today, to hear complaints of local citizens and manufacturers in connection with the gas supply.

Miss Rosie Green, Barton, who suffered a fractured skull when she was struck last night by an automobile driven by J. Reynolds, of Jarvis, is in a critical condition at St. Joseph's Hospital. The hospital authorities stated tonight that she could not recover.

The bonds which he thought to be worth $31,000,000, but which turned out to be only photographs of the original papers, must be returned to the museum of the Hamilton Scientific Association by John Wallace, who found them there. W. N. Fulgar, secretary of the association, announced tonight that he had demanded the return of the bonds.

SCOTIAN FARMERS URGE LOWER TARIFF

Federal Commission Sits in Halifax—Told Agriculturalists Fear New U.S. Policy.

Halifax, Nov. 8.—Nova Scotia farmers, represented by D. L. Taggart, president of the United Farmers of the province, expressed themselves before the federal tariff commission here this afternoon as being in favor of a substantial reduction in tariff on articles necessary to agriculture.

Manufacturers of the province, on the other hand, urged on the commission the necessity of the retention of the present tariff system with possible revision in some respects desirable directly to a protective policy of the Republican party just returned to power in the United States.

The farmers of Nova Scotia think that the tariff agreement between the United States and Canada should be such that they could depend upon a continuation of the present trade conditions in the United States in respect to natural food products. We fear, however, that if Canada persists in keeping up the barriers between the two countries in respect to tariff matters there is every danger of the new United States administration re-enacting the old McKinley legislation," he said.

JUDGE ADVOCATES SIX JAIL FARMS

Ideal System for Province, Opinion Expressed at Barrie.

Barrie, Nov. 8.—Advisability of keeping lunatics apart from other prisoners in small jails thruout Ontario was brought forward in evidence presented before the Ontario public service commission in session here today. Chief Constable Johnson said that the system now in vogue was to have supposed lunatics examined by two doctors and if found insane put in Barrie jail. They are made as comfortable as possible, but he admitted that the jail has no padded cells or other special accommodation for lunatics. Frequently, he said, lunatics in local jails for several weeks.

Justice Wismer declared that, in his opinion, the ideal system of lunatics would be a group of six or seven farm jails for the whole province. This system, of course, would take care only of ordinary criminals, and the Criminals Commission, Somerville said that such a suggestion struck him as being a very practical one. And he asked if Judge Vance would outline a plan for putting it into effect. Judge Vance admitted there would be strong opposition from local centres to the abolition of the necessity of central jails.

"My! How I did used to dread having the Threshers come—but I don't mind now."

"WHY, a year ago I could no more think of cooking a big dinner than I could fly. I did not seem to have any strength then, and a little extra work or excitement would use me up for a week. The doctor said my nerves were weak and that I had nervous prostration. I was always worrying about something. It all looks very foolish now. But that is just the difference between being weak and strong. Why doesn't every woman use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food when she gets run-down in health? But I suppose they do not all know about it or do not realize what it will do for them. Then perhaps some of them do not use it long enough to build up their exhausted nervous systems. One thing sure, the women of this community will know all about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for they know how miserable I was, and I will see that they know what I used to make me well. I certainly did get into a terribly run-down condition, but no one would believe it to see me now since using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I can now take a real pleasure in life and its activities. And why shouldn't I? I sleep like a top, enjoy my meals and get outdoors where the fresh air and sunshine help to keep me feeling fine. I don't believe people appreciate good health until they have been sick for a time. I am sure that I did not. The credit for my splendid health now is undoubtedly due to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I want every woman to know it.
