WANT ARBITRATORS ON T.S.R. TERMS

Third Man Must Be Agreed Upon in Advance Between City and Railway.

According to Manager R. J. Fleming, the Toronto Street Railway Co. is still willing to accept the three-man arbitration board to settle the price to be paid for the system by the city on certain conditions.

"Our position has not changed," said Mr. Fleming. "We named Mr. P. H. Drayton, the official arbitrator, to conduct the arbitration, on advice that the statutes contemplate his appointment. We were and are ready, however, to have three arbitrators instead, provided that the third man is agreed upon between ourselves and the city in advance, and the names of all three incorporated in a ratifying statute."

The city is asking for legislation providing for the appointment of three arbitrators, one by the city, one by the company and the third by the first two, and in case of their failure to agree, then the court shall make the appointment.

PREMIER DENIES BECK INTERFERES

Not Slightest Grounds for Any Such Suggestion, He Says.

Premier Drury flatly contradicts The Farmers' Sun suggestion that Sir Adam Beck dictates to the government. He said yesterday that as an official responsible for the administration of a very important department, Sir Adam Beck was frequently consulted. There was not the slightest ground for suggesting that he dictated or tried to dictate to the government. The utmost good relationship existed. There were differences of opinion on some matters, but there was friendly feeling and co-operation between the government and the Hydro-Electric Power Commission.

Col. D. Carmichael, minister without portfolio, and the representative of the Lorry cabinet on the Hydro Commission, described the attack made in The Farmers' Sun as "all rot," adding that "nobody deplores such attacks more than he." There was not the slightest foundation, he said, for the suggestion that Sir Adam Beck was trying to boss the cabinet.

Miss Mary Power, B.A., presided at the annual meeting of the Catholic Big Sisters held at 81 Bond street last night, when the enlarged headquarters were inspected and admired, and reports of an encouraging nature were given. The report of the field secretary showed that there are now 212 Little Sisters, and that 207 calls had been made in addition to those made by the 76 Big Sisters. Donations of money, food and clothes had been received, and particular acknowledgment was made of assistance from the Edward Kyle Chapter, I. O. O. F., the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the St. Vincent de Paul Society for the Toronto Savings' Bank for Charity Fund. Short addresses were given by J. J. Murphy, of the St. Vincent de Paul, and Mr.
