7 properly rejected by Deputy Returning Officers,
7 marked for both candidates,
21 admittedly spoiled, and
9 blank bahots found in the boxes, with no mark for either candidate.

This reduces the total number of ballots cast to be considered to 7813. There were 7518 of these about which there is no dispute and of which Mr. Frankland received 3803 and Mr. Maclean 3715. Of the 295 disputed ballots, if allowed at all, 101 are claimed for Mr. Frankland and 194 for Mr. Maclean. Two hundred and seventy-four ballots are marked for the candidate's name, instead of in the circle opposite such candidate's name. All of these ballots were good ballots and would have been counted under the law as it stood before the amenament of 1895, for the old section 46 expressly said that the voter could place the cross opposite to or within the division containing the name of the candidate he desired to vote for. The amendment of 1895 repealed that clause and enacted in lieu thereof a clause that states that the voter shall place the cross in the white circular spice opposite the name of the candidate he desired to vote for. The contention before me by Mr. Mc-Carthy for Mr. Maclean is that this section having regard to the whole statute should be construed as directory only. Mr. Johnston, on the contrary, urges that it can only properly be construed as mandatory. One construction will validate 274 votes, the other will discard them, and, as a consequence, disfranchise that number of electors whose intention to vote for the several candidar dates can be clearly gathered from the ballots objected to. It was pointed out by counsel that the instructions to vote for the several candidar dates can be clearly gathered from the ballots objected to. It was pointed out by counsel that the instructions to voters contained in Schedule M to the Act continue to inform the voter that his ballot is properly marked if the cross is placed in the division containing the name of the candidate. These instructions set out in printed placards were placed outside each polling booth for the information of the electors. In amending section 46 the Legislature neglected to amend the instructions at the same time.

Smith's Falls July 3.-At the exnumber named Thomas Barnes, on Wednesday evening, conclusive evidence was arrived at, and they were all discharged except three, who were sent up on a charge of vagrancy, so as to be available if there should be a trial. Their names are William Reid, Thos. Morgan and Frank Pitts or White, and the three evidently know more than they care to disclose. Suspicion rests particularly on Pitts and another one known as the "Kid," who was with them here on the night of the murder, but escould not since be found. The police of Hamilton, where the man Barnes is said to have come from, made an effort to trace him and failed to find any connection between the murdered man and any family of that name living there. An adjournment was made until the lith list, and a Government detective will likely be put on the case.

Great satisfaction was expressed in the city to-day at the decision in the East York election re-count. Even the Liberals themselves admit that Judge McDougall has acted strictly according to law. There is not a man but admits that in the interpretation of the new ballot the intention of the voter should be got at, and that one should not stick at technicalities. Last year Mr. Davies wanted Parliament to declare that only crosses marked in the white circular space on the ballot paper should count, but Mr. Mills, Speaker White, Sir C. H. Tupper, Dr. Bergin am others strongly opposed this view. They took the ground that the new ballot was to be directory, not mandatory, and this view has evidently prevailed with Judge McDougal. The gain of a seat to the Conservatives with a possibility of more during the What is Fashionable and Where Get It.

The gain of a seat to the Conservatives with a possibility of more during the period in which the re-counts will take place, emphasizes the importance of the Government not being too hasty in surrendering the reins of power.

Mr. Laurier as a Cabinet Maker.

Evidently Mr. Laurier is not having plain sailing in his Cabinet construction. His decision to drop Senator Scott gives great offence here. Possibly an effort will be made to placate him with the Speakership of the Senate, but this is hardly a fair way to requite a man who has been righting party battles in the Senate for 22 or 24 years. There is quite a tussle also between Devlin and Fitzpatrick, with the chances in favor of Devlin. The latter, however, will be like an unbroken colt in Mr. Laurier's hands. Mr. Blair seems to have beaten Domville for the New Brunswick portfolio. He will run either in Queen's and Sunbury or Albert.

Holiday headgear is worn by all chasses of people. They won't forget the hat or cap that will suit them best. At no place in the city is there such a large assortment of this class of goods as at Dineens', corner of King and Yonge-streets. They have all the latest shapes, including blue golf, yachting caps, with soft crown and with hard crown, and the real Canadian yachting club regulation cap; white duck yachting caps, camping hats in all shapes and all colors. There is also a new line of linen hats, very light in weight, and suitable for tennis, golf, etc. This first is a novelty, and bids to become very popular. There is also a good line of regulation golf caps in tweed and chamois. Dineens' special patent bicycle cap has become very popular with the wheeling fraternity. They are selling them at a very low rate, but still have a quantity left. If you want a holiday cap, go to Dineens', at corner of King and Yonge.
