Danick-Hillman.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Danick, Birch-avenue, when their daughter, Mary, was united to the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Claude Edward Hillman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Schutt.The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily attired in a gown of ivory chiffon tulle, made empress style, prettily trimmed with rich all-over lace and silk applique. She wore a tulle veil with a wreath of lilies-of-the-valley, an decorated a sheath of white chrysanthemums.During the signing of the register, Mr.
C. Senior sang the wedding hymn and Miss E. Roger played a selection from Wienars.After a dainty luncheon, the happy couple left for a short honeymoon, to be spending at the home of the bride's mother at Blackstock, Ont. The bride's goingaway gown was an iron-grey suit, smartly tailored with lace and silk applique.
She carried the groom's gift, a beautiful morocco hand-bag. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Hillman will be at home to their friends in their new home on Collier-street.The ceremony took place beneath a canopy of mums and anthurus, the home being beautifully decorated with mums. Miss Florence Daniels, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and carried a sheath of pink chrysanthemums, which, with a set of engraved beauty aids, was the gift of the groom.
Mr. Gus Simsen acted as groomsmen, to whom the groom's gift was a pearl tie-pin.Kerwin-Roberts.
At Centennial Methodist Church, on Wednesday evening, November 10, the wedding of Miss Kerwin to Mr. Roberts was celebrated. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. W. Roberts, and was

Society at the Capital

Hon. Mr. Justice, Mrs. and the Misses Cassels have returned to town after an extended trip to Winnipeg and Vancouver.Hon. Clifford and Mrs. Sifton, who spent last week in Toronto, have gone to New York, to attend the horse show.
Hon. George E. Foster and Mrs.
Foster have arrived from Toronto, and have taken a pretty house in Macdonald-street for the season.Hon. G. W. and Mrs. Ross arrived from Toronto on Wednesday, and are in apartments in the Cecil.The lion's share of entertainments during the week were given in honor of Lady Hanbury Williams or her daughter, Miss Gladys, to give their many friends the opportunity of wishing them "bon voyage" and good-bye on the eve of their departure for Scotland. The first of these was on Tuesday, when the Misses McLeod Clark were the hostesses at the tea-hour in their lovely home in Rockcliffe. Miss Gladys Hanbury Williams, Miss Lucy Kingsford and Mrs. Lawrence Taylor did duty at the tea-table, and the floral arrangements about the various rooms were specially charming.Miss Vaughan Avery gave a luncheon for Miss Hanbury Williams on Monday, when covers were laid for fourteen, and the guests included Lady Evelyn Grey and all the bright young women who usually congregate at these jolly gatherings.Her excellency entertained at a large and very enjoyable tea for Miss Gladis Hanbury Williams, at which all Ottawa's attractive girls had an opportunity of seeing their companions once more before leaving them.Miss Vaughan Avery was another hostess who entertained in honor of Miss Gladis Hanbury Williams at a luncheon on Monday. Mrs. H. K. Egan gave a dance at her home on Wednesday, also in her honor.The capital is rapidly filling up with the various M.P.'s, senators and others who are coming to town for the session. Among those who have already arrived are Col. Harry Smith, from Kingston; Hon. Mr. and Mrs.
Lundy, from Quebec; Hon. George Laurier, who arrived from British Columbia on Wednesday; Hon.
Wm. and Mrs. Gibson, from Beams-ville; Hon. L. J. and Mrs. Power of Halifax, who are at the Sherbrooke; Hon. F. T. and Mrs. Frost of Smith's Falls, who will spend the winter in comfortable apartments at the Aylmer.Among some of the young people who have come to take in the festivities in connection with the opening of parliament are the Misses Ives, daughters of Mr. Hubert Ives of Montreal, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Parkinson, who are at the Sherbrooke; and will be among the attractive debutantes of the season; Miss Alice Meeker of Montreal, who is with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galt; Miss Nell Blake of Toronto, who is staying with Mrs. H.

P. Wright, with whom Miss Wright of Toronto also is; Miss Malloy of Toronto, who is the guest of Mrs. Keeney, and many others.Sir Charles and Lady Fitzpatrick entertained at dinner on Thursday, when the guests were Mr. and Mrs.
John and Lady Hanbury Williams, and Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Sifton, who were the honored guests of a brilliant assemblage at the Rideau Club when the various deputy ministers gave him a farewell dinner.Mrs. Perley Smith of Toronto is expected in town next week, when she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Housner, the latter of whom is her sister.Hon. W. S. and Mrs. Fielding have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jane Fielding, to K. N. MacPhee of London, Eng.Miss Isabel Sherwood gave a very bright luncheon on Tuesday, as a farewell to Miss Gladys Hanbury Williams, when fourteen bright young girls were guests.Monday, Miss Elsie Hinchworth will entertain at the tea-hour in honor of this popular young lady, and on Wednesday Miss Bessie Keefe will be the special guest of a gathering, of which Miss Chrysler will be the hostess.The Country Club was, on Tuesday night, the scene of the first dance that has taken place there since its completion, and it proved in every respect a most satisfactory one for such events.Mrs. Geo. H. Perley was the hostess, and the gathering was given in honor of her daughter, Miss Ethel Perley, who was prettily gowned in a white sequined robe over satin.Miss Perley being much admired in her blue crepe de chine, trimmed with bebe Irish lace, and a white hat with a small army of debutantes, who all looked their best.The Undergraduates' Dance.
