

Largest Afternoon Circulation East of Montreal

Average Daily Circulation, 1906, 7,412

THE EVENING TIMES

12 Pages

VOL. III, NO. 93.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1907.

ONE CENT.

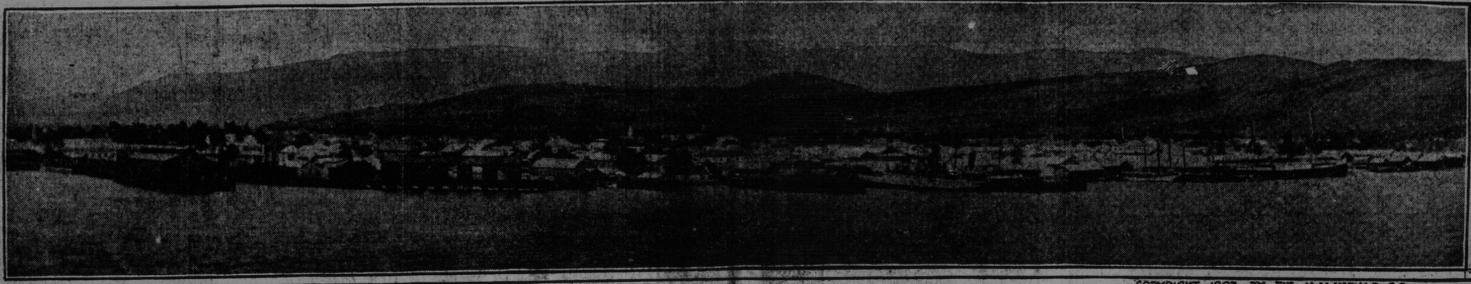

PHOTO BY ENNO BODE

KINGSTON, JAMAICA FROM THE HARBOR

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY THE N. Y. HERALD CO

SUBSCRIPTION LISTS NOW OPENED FOR THE CHAMPLAIN MONUMENT

So Far $5,800 Has Been Subscribed and $4,200 More Must be Had --- Times and Telegraph Give $500---Lists Now Open at This Office.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes Dominion Government $5,000.00, The Daily Telegraph $250.00, The Evening Times $250.00, Senator Ellis $100.00, Hon. A. G. Blair $100.00, D. Russell Jack $100.00.

Total to Date $5,800.00. The whole amount needed is $10,000.00, so that $4,200.00 more is now required.

The Telegraph and The Times will be glad to receive and to acknowledge further subscriptions.

Hamilton MacCarthy, the famous sculptor who designed the Champlain monument.

WALLACE BROWN MET DEATH AT SAND POINT

A horrible accident happened at Sand Point shortly after one o'clock today. Wallace Brown, a longshoreman, was caught in a winch on the Donaldson line steamer Parthenia and was wound round with the wire rope until his life was crushed out, and he was a bleeding, but not dead.

SITUATION UNCHANGED

The trouble between the N. B. Telephone Company and the 14 exchange men who asked for an increase from $2 to $2.50 per day and were refused the request, is today unchanged.

TROPHY GOES TO HAMPTON

AMHERST, N. S., Jan. 18 (Special)—In the final so far as completed Amherst remains the D. C. Fraser cup which the governor's trophy cup goes to the youngest, but not the best, of the boys from Amherst.

FOR MONTREAL BONSPIEL

FREDERICTON, Jan. 18 (Special)—The following members of the Fredericton Curling Club will leave for Montreal this evening to take part in the bonspiel: D. Winslow, A. E. Massie, C. H. Allen, L. Fowler, J. A. Winslow, W. A. McLean, F. P. Hatt and James Tibbitts.

NEWS FROM KINGSTON SLOWLY FILTERING IN; DEATHS PLACED AT 700

Five Hundred People Are in the Hospitals Seriously Injured---American Warships in the Harbor While American Sailors Are Preventing Looting---The Town is a Wreck.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18—News from Kingston, Jamaica, is still filtering in slowly, and it is 24 hours late, but the worst is now apparently known. The town itself is a wreck, few of the houses standing remaining habitable, and the population is living in the open. Food and medical supplies continue scarce, but relief ships are hurrying to the stricken city from many quarters.

American Kindness

KINGSTON, Jan. 18.—The U. S. warships Indiana and Missouri arrived this morning from Guantanamo, bringing large quantities of medicines and food. The torpedo boat destroyer Whipple arrived during the night with a boat load of medicines, which was sent ashore in charge of Surgeon MacDonell.

420 Bodies Buried

Four hundred and twenty dead were buried up to last night. The remaining bodies are being cremated. The death list is now believed to be about 700. The work of clearing the streets of debris is being pushed. Dynamite is being used to blow down some of the ruins.

Great Suffering Among Poor

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—A Kingston, Jamaica, despatch to the Herald says that the battleships Missouri and Indiana, was called on for help in the work of policing the city and its promptly responded by landing marines.

with the battleships Missouri and Indiana, was called on for help in the work of policing the city and its promptly responded by landing marines. These sea soldiers are now picketing the streets and assisting the British authorities in the maintenance of order.

despatch to the Herald says that the battleship Missouri, lying off the penitentiary over-awed the unruly convicts by firing two rounds of blank cartridges and landing an armed party.

London is Grateful

LONDON IS GRATIFIED. LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Daily Mail and other newspapers pay a tribute of gratitude this morning to the splendid and prompt help given by Admiral Evans at Kingston, and the Mail also gratefully recalls that there was not a British warship at hand to render this service.

IMPORTANT EVIDENCE IN COLLINS MURDER CASE

By Detective Killen in the oak bin as he said he had been chopping wood with it at the priest's place in April. He also identified one of the shaving brushes found in the value as his.

despatch to the Herald says that the battleship Missouri, lying off the penitentiary over-awed the unruly convicts by firing two rounds of blank cartridges and landing an armed party.

London is Grateful. LONDON IS GRATIFIED. LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Daily Mail and other newspapers pay a tribute of gratitude this morning to the splendid and prompt help given by Admiral Evans at Kingston, and the Mail also gratefully recalls that there was not a British warship at hand to render this service.

MISS KATHERINE J. PETERS

The death of Miss Katherine J. Peters occurred this morning at her residence, corner of Duke and Carmarthen streets. The deceased was a daughter of the late Hon. Harry Peters, of Gagetown, who for years was a member and speaker of the house of assembly, and afterwards a member of the legislative council.

WILL BE PATENTED.

It is understood that invitations have been issued to all the Good Roads Associations of Canada and the United States to send delegations to St. John to study a new experiment in road building, which the city street department believes will revolutionize the making of macadam roads.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

was set down on City Road. This was several years ago, but is well remembered by many citizens. A similar experiment was successfully carried out on Princess and Prince William streets at a later period.

Miss Katherine J. Peters

The death of Miss Katherine J. Peters occurred this morning at her residence, corner of Duke and Carmarthen streets. The deceased was a daughter of the late Hon. Harry Peters, of Gagetown, who for years was a member and speaker of the house of assembly, and afterwards a member of the legislative council.

WILL BE PATENTED.

It is understood that invitations have been issued to all the Good Roads Associations of Canada and the United States to send delegations to St. John to study a new experiment in road building, which the city street department believes will revolutionize the making of macadam roads.

"QUEEN CITY SPECIAL" STRUCK BY A FREIGHT; SEVERAL ARE KILLED

Serious Railway Wreck Early This Morning Near Fowler, Indiana --- Passengers Reported Killed---Wreckage Took Fire, Bodies are Buried in Debris

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—A telephone message from Lafayette, Ind., early today reports a serious wreck on the Big Four road at Fowler, Ind. Passenger train No. 38, eastbound, collided with a freight train at that station, and it is reported that a number of persons were killed.

POLICE MAGISTRATE RITCHIE INTRODUCES PAROLE SYSTEM

There was a good deal of business before the police court today and several cases of interest were dealt with. Edward Kiley had no less than three charges against him, but was able to pay his fine.

Kiley was arrested last night by Police-constable Howland, who found him drunk on Britain street. He was also charged with violently resisting the police in the legal discharge of duty and with being absent from his place of employment.

MOSES C. BARBOUR DEAD AFTER FEW DAYS ILLNESS

Many citizens were shocked this morning to hear of the death of Moses C. Barbour, one of St. John's most highly respected residents. Mr. Barbour had only been ill about a week, but being well in years, his constitution could not withstand the attack of pleuro-pneumonia which he was seized with.

Miss Katherine J. Peters

The death of Miss Katherine J. Peters occurred this morning at her residence, corner of Duke and Carmarthen streets. The deceased was a daughter of the late Hon. Harry Peters, of Gagetown, who for years was a member and speaker of the house of assembly, and afterwards a member of the legislative council.

WILL BE PATENTED.

It is understood that invitations have been issued to all the Good Roads Associations of Canada and the United States to send delegations to St. John to study a new experiment in road building, which the city street department believes will revolutionize the making of macadam roads.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

was set down on City Road. This was several years ago, but is well remembered by many citizens. A similar experiment was successfully carried out on Princess and Prince William streets at a later period.

Miss Katherine J. Peters

The death of Miss Katherine J. Peters occurred this morning at her residence, corner of Duke and Carmarthen streets. The deceased was a daughter of the late Hon. Harry Peters, of Gagetown, who for years was a member and speaker of the house of assembly, and afterwards a member of the legislative council.

of both engines are missing and their bodies are supposed to be under the wreckage. All available physicians are being summoned. Fowler is 23 miles west of Lafayette. The private car of Vice-President C. E. Schaefer of the Big Four, was attached to the rear of the train. It was not damaged and the injured persons were placed on board to be taken to Kankakee, Ill.

POLICE MAGISTRATE RITCHIE INTRODUCES PAROLE SYSTEM

There was a good deal of business before the police court today and several cases of interest were dealt with. Edward Kiley had no less than three charges against him, but was able to pay his fine.

Kiley was arrested last night by Police-constable Howland, who found him drunk on Britain street. He was also charged with violently resisting the police in the legal discharge of duty and with being absent from his place of employment.

MOSES C. BARBOUR DEAD AFTER FEW DAYS ILLNESS

Many citizens were shocked this morning to hear of the death of Moses C. Barbour, one of St. John's most highly respected residents. Mr. Barbour had only been ill about a week, but being well in years, his constitution could not withstand the attack of pleuro-pneumonia which he was seized with.

Miss Katherine J. Peters

The death of Miss Katherine J. Peters occurred this morning at her residence, corner of Duke and Carmarthen streets. The deceased was a daughter of the late Hon. Harry Peters, of Gagetown, who for years was a member and speaker of the house of assembly, and afterwards a member of the legislative council.

WILL BE PATENTED.

It is understood that invitations have been issued to all the Good Roads Associations of Canada and the United States to send delegations to St. John to study a new experiment in road building, which the city street department believes will revolutionize the making of macadam roads.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

was set down on City Road. This was several years ago, but is well remembered by many citizens. A similar experiment was successfully carried out on Princess and Prince William streets at a later period.

Miss Katherine J. Peters

The death of Miss Katherine J. Peters occurred this morning at her residence, corner of Duke and Carmarthen streets. The deceased was a daughter of the late Hon. Harry Peters, of Gagetown, who for years was a member and speaker of the house of assembly, and afterwards a member of the legislative council.