FIRE CS.

[Prove its quitted Record, Nay 26]

[Prove its quitted R

The control of the property of Major Blake, Captains Mande and Millman, and internant Fitzgerald, with two Sergeants and k

The Oregon Question.—We copy the fol-owing from the Paris Correspondence of the Eu-opean Times, which will show the opinion of the French papers on this question:—

Meior Biale. Captains Mande and Miliman, and lieutenant Fitzgernid, with two Sergeants and eighty ranks and file of the 33d Regiment, arrived in this City on Pridey morning, in the steamer Herrald from Windson, to join the service companies attained in this City and Predericten. The death of the Control of the Control of the Property of the Control of the Control

O'Connell is going to put Peel's temper to a severe test, by holding another series of 'monster' meetings.' Tara of the Kings', a spot sacred to Irish patriotism, will shortly be the scene of a gathering no wise inferior in numbers and pomp to that which revived its ancient glories two years ago, when upwards of a million people assembled to hear the magic of O'Connell's voice, and to give due solemnity to the occasion, now, as then, Mass is to be said in the open air previous to the political business of the day! This is hurling a bold defiance in the teeth of the Government. It remains to be seen whether they will now, as they did before, fill the country with soldiers, and bristle it with bayonets. The wrongs of a country prevent its Ministers from enjoying a bed of roses.

It is still uncertain whether the Roman Catholic Bishops will give in their adhesion to the Government plan for the erection of the three colleges in Ireland, minus religious instruction.

Alderman Keshan, a Repealer, has been elected Lord Mayor of Dublin for the ensuing civic year.

The Earl of St. German, better known by his former courtesy title of Lord Eliot, while Secretary for Ireland, has been selected, at the special desire of the Duke of Wellington, with whom he was always a particular favorite, to succeed Lord Sturat de Rothesay, as the Representative of Queen Victoria at the Court of the Emperor of Russia.

Among other appointments, those of the Marquis of Bate to be Lord High Commissioner to the Geore protracted to six of Bate to be Lord High Commissioner to the Geore protracted to severe that the special desire of the Marquis of Bate to be Lord High Commissioner to the Geore protracted to severe protracted to severe the severe the severe the severe the severe that the severe than the severe the severe the severe than the severe that the severe the sever night of the Sti pf. April. Rie was in ins 44th year.

The venerable Lord Carbery died on the 12th at his residence, Castle Freke, county of Cork. His lordship was born in 1765, married in 1783 the third daughter of the second Earl of Arran, succeeded his father in the baroneter in 1777, and his cousin in the peerage in 1807, and was eighty years of age at the time of his decease.

The personal property of the late Baron Gurney has been sworn to be under £80,000. It is divided by his will amongst his widow, children, and grand-childen.

children.

The will of Mr. Philip John Miles of Bristol has been proved. It extends over 79 sheets, or 360 of the state of Mrs. Caudle's famed "Curtain Lectures" in Punch.

Amongst the railway projects talked of is one to connect Bristol with South Wales by means of a tunnel under the Severn.

His Excellency, Count Clam, with Prince E. Schwarzenberg, Prince Colloredo, and Count Waldstein, arrived on the 14th at Mivart's Hotel, from Vienna. Who is Count Clam?

The Paris papers of May 12, mention that the health of M. Guizot was "all but perfectly re-established." He had been received by the King and Royal Family.—The Presse of the same date takes the ground that the claims of the United States to the whole of the Oregon territory is not tenable. This opinion, from this source, was considered more deserving of notice, as that journal has been accustomed to display an acrimon ous spirit towards England.

The French Government had decided on establishing a bank in Algiers, with a capital of 10,000,000 francs, of which 2,000,000 are to be furnished by the Bank of France, and 8,000,000 by shareholders, in shares of 1000 francs each.

The King of the French has sent £50 towards the funds of the Society of the Prench in London.

In the 22 cantons of Switzerland there are 1,278,100 protestints 865 400 established in a real 1 the funds of the Society of the French in London. In the 22 cantons of Switzerland there are 1,278,100 protestants, 865,400 catholics, 61 monasteries, and 53 numeries — European Times.

The Montreal Pilot, of 29th May, states that not far from one hundred thousand pounds have been already subscribed for the proposed railroad from Montreal to the Province line.

The Rainish Constant M. Ogilby, Esq., has Ship Mozambique, Physical Constant of the Province of the of th

THE BRITISH CONSUL, M. Ogilby, Esq., has left the Consulate at Charleston, (S. C.) after a service of fifteen years. The Charleston: Chamber of Commerce gave him a public dinner last week. The speeches and sentiments upon the occasion were eminently pacific and friendly. Col. F. H. Elmore, who received the offer of a nomination as Minister to England from Mr. Polk, addressed the Consul in a very handsome and appropriate speech, to which a pertinent reply was made, and the following sentiment added:—

The United States and the Huited Kingdom.

The United States and the United Kingdom:

The United States and the United Kingdom:

The United States and the United Kingdom:

and promoting the happiness, temporal and eternal, of the human family.

and promoting the happiness, temporal and eternal, of the human family.

The following also were among the toasta:
Commerce:—The parent of civilization, the nursery of arts, the bond of universal peace.
Great Britain and the United States:—The two geatest commercial powers of the world; united by ties of interest and a common ancestry, let there be perpetual peace between them.

By Hon. J. E. Holmes:
England and America:—Long may they continue to run the career of glorious enulation in every thing great and honorable—preferring the arts of peace to the stratagies of war.—N. York Express.

Death of Mrs. Smythe.—The decease of Mrs. Smythe of Methven, removes another of the subjects of Burns' Muse from this scene—being the heroine of one of his sweetest lyrics, "Blythe, blythe, and merry was she." Mrs. Smythe's maiden name was Euphemia Murray, of Lintrose, called in the poetic language of the country, the Flower of Strathmore. She was on a visit to her relative, Sir William Murray, of Ochtertyre, grandfather of the present baronet, where Burns met her, on one of his northern excursions, when he was the honoral guest at the tables of the nobility and gentry. She accompanied him as one of a small party to Glenturet, on the Ochtertyre estate, near Crieff, and charmed the poet alike by her personal accomplishments and her sympathy with his admiration of tho beauties of nature. These suggested the song, with which her name will ever be associated, which he engrafied upon an old ditty, of which only the type fet lines of the chorus survive in the modern sort.

Commercative, Algene Algene

"I would inscribe these volumes to one whose heart ever prompts her to sympathize with the suffering; to one whose taste has often chustened, and whose judgment has ever guided, their pages; to a granular to the suffering to the suffering to one whose taste has often chustened, and whose judgment has ever guided, their pages; to a granular to the suffering to one whose strength of STORE, an extremely possible to the suffering to the suffering to one whose strength of STORE, an extremely possible to the suffering to one whose strength of STORE, an extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, an extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, an extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, an extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, an extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely possible to one whose strength of STORE, and extremely po heart ever prompts her to sympathize with the suffering; to one whose taste has often chestened, and whose judgment has ever guided, their pages; to a most faithful friend, and a perfect Wife."

To The BAZAAR for the sale of Ludies' Fancy work &c., will be held in the South wing of the Custom House, as Thursday and Friday. The Both and 27th of Jone A large number of the articles have been contributed by friends in England.

All persons who kindly intend to make further contributed by friends in England.

All persons who kindly intend to make further contributed by friends in England.

Passengers in the ship Themis from Liverpool.—Capilla Obhaston, 33d Regiment, and family, and Messrs. Stevins and Stork.

In the 50th Regiment, and family.

In the wholesoft for sale wholesale prices.

It was the sale of Ludies' Fancy work that the form and the sale of the 50th Regiment and Family and Reams of Saling Wax, Draw Tissue, Famou and Engles, Famou and Engles, Famou and Engles, Famou and Engles, Famou and Function.

Farsengers in the ship Themis from Liverpool.—Capilla Missionary from the Free Church of Scotlend to this Province, a Missionary from the Free Church of Scotlend to this Province, and I was the following the famous and the famous and the family and the famous and the famous general cargo. Caroline, Kilpatrick, I

PORT C

Cheap Book