SIX BLIGHTIES TO ONE KILLED

A St. John soldier writing from France on June 15 says: "I saw Ken Christie, he is waiting orders to proceed to Canada and expects to go to the United States to help in training American recruits. A large number of N. C. O.'s are going back. There are eleven from one unit alone. Douglas Holman is in England and takes his leave on leave when I was round last night. I just missed Charlie Sullivan a couple of nights ago. He is in the N. S. Highlanders. They are in a bad spot and I wish him luck. The best of it is that there are roughly about seven blighties for every man killed. So you have six out of seven to live.

FOUR BROWN AS BOAT CAPSIZES

Two Sisters and Brother Among Victims—Party of 12 Returning After Outing on Lake Champlain.

Burlington, Vt., July 9.—A summer tragedy which cost four lives, occurred at 3.30 last evening when an 18-foot power boat belonging to Frank Baldwin of this city and containing twelve young people was overturned in the Winooski River, the launch striking a hidden snag and capsizing.

The dead are Mary Hoffrichter, 19; her sister, Edith, 21; their brother, Max, 27; and Frank Baldwin, owner of the boat. All the bodies were recovered, with the exception of that of Max Hoffrichter.

The most coherent account of the tragedy that could be obtained tonight was that the party of twelve were returning from Mallet Bay, on Lake Champlain, after a day's outing, and that when the launch was turning the great bend in the river above the Illinois Bridge, it struck a floating tree or stump. The collision was not sufficient to overturn the craft, but some of the party became startled and jumped to one side of the boat. Their combined weight caused the launch to overturn and plunge the occupants into a straggling, terrified heap in the water.

"PUBLIC HEARING" IN ROGERS CASE BRIEF

Minister on Stand For One Minute—Written Statement by Counsel But Only One Copy

Montreal, July 10.—The public hearing into the charges against Hon. Robt. Rogers opened this morning, and lasted thirty-one and a half minutes. Mr. Rogers was questioned on a matter of local interest by the sending of a telegram from North Bay, N. B. His examination lasted possibly one minute. The counsel for Mr. Rogers announced that they would forego oral argument, contenting themselves with submitting a written statement of the case, as they weighed it. This statement was turned over to the investigating commissioners, Sir Ezekiel MeLeod and the Hon. Mr. Teller, ex-justice of the superior court of the province.

TWO LIQUOR CASES IN POLICE COURT

Edmond Baker appeared in the police court this afternoon charged with supplying liquor to a man named Thomas Keating. He acknowledged having done so, and said he got the liquor from a man between the station house and the corner of Mill and Exchange row and paid $3 for the bottle. He was sent back to jail and warned that he is liable to be arrested on a charge of supplying liquor to a man named Thomas Keating. Senate Widens Ban on Whisky

Not Only Prohibits Manufacture, but Votes for Sizing of All in Bond

Washington, July 10.—The foes of whisky won their fight in the United States senate today when Section 12 of the food administration bill was amended so as to prohibit further manufacture of distilled spirits during the war, while the president was directed to take over all stocks of whisky, rum, gin and brandy in bond, but stipulates that owners of the stocks taken over be paid the actual cost of them, plus 10 per cent. All these stocks the government will take over in the event the food bill becomes operative.

War Tax Bill Recommended to Find New Revenue—Wine and Beer Undisturbed—The Effect of the Legislation

The substitute whisky section adopted makes it mandatory for the president to take over all stocks of whisky, rum, gin and brandy in bond, but stipulates that owners of the stocks taken over be paid the actual cost of them, plus 10 per cent. All these stocks the government will take over in the event the food bill becomes operative.

KILLS OLD MAN FOR $100

New York, July 10.—Samuel Schneiderman, sixty years old, was pressing a pair of trousers in his little shop on the first floor, 185 Second street, when a young man walked in and began to talk with him. A few moments later Schneiderman started from the room, the visitor spoke to him and the old man turned to be shot through the head. He was struck in the temple and received another bullet in the neck. The two grappled, and the assailant started from the room. He was seen to receive another bullet in the neck. Victim, Dying, Accuses His Son's Boy Companion

Schneiderman told detectives that he had been attacked by Benjamin Assmus, a friend of his son, Samuel Schneiderman. The detectives went to the home of Assmus at 618 Fifth street, and after waiting an hour Benjamin came in. He was arrested, and after a search of his home, and said that they found in a trunk a blood-stained revolver with the broken butt. They had pieces found on the floor of Schneiderman's tailor shop fitted the broken handle.

THE HOME GUARD

(American Lumberman) In this war the persons who stay at home will constitute the "home guard" not because there is likelihood of invasion that will necessitate their arming, but because they constitute the backbone of the nation's industry and ultimate victory is as likely to be determined by the one branch of the army as by the other.
