CHRISTMAS DAY AT THE IMPERIAL

Starting with a bumper matinee at 2 o'clock and repeating the show starting at 3.40, the big, bright and cozy Imperial will hold high carnival of holiday entertainment tomorrow. The night shows will commence at 7 and 8.45. A specially selected Pamous Players production graces the programme, no less a mystic-comedy than Beulah Marie Dix's, "The Ghost House," with Jack Pickford and Louise Huff in the leading roles. This is a series of thrills and laughs that will create a veritable hurricane of fun. Then to cap the climax of Christmas merriment will come fatty Arbuckle in a two-reel farce, entitled "His Wife's Mistake" are quiet at the moment.
