LOCAL NEWS

BATTLE LINER.
The S. S. Salsala, Captain Abbott, for Genoa, arrived at New York on Oct. 16.

LITTLE DAMAGE.
There was a slight fire about eight o'clock this morning in a house in Harrison street, owned by Joseph McHugh. The blaze started behind the stove.

HAS REACHED INDIA.
Friends of Miss Evelyn J. Roberts, missionary to India, will be pleased to learn of her safe arrival at Bombay, after a pleasant voyage.

VISITING OLD HOME.
Dr. F. E. King is in the city from Vancouver, the guest of his sister-in-law Mrs. C. D. Strong, Wright street. He is being welcomed by friends. Dr. King has been on a visit to his old home at Chipman, after an absence of twelve years. He is a son of Senator King of that place.

PLAN FOR CLEAN CITY.
A resident of Mount Pleasant has sent to Mayor Frink a suggestion for a method for removing the sanitary conditions around the city. His suggestion is that the annual tax of $2 be imposed on each household and that the proceeds, which would amount to about $80,000, be devoted to paying for fortnightly collections of ashes, garbage, etc. This would provide for the systematic removal of waste matter and at a charge less than the cost to householders under the present individual system.

NOVELTY SHOWER.
In honor of Miss Susan Cully, who is soon to be a principal in a matrimonial event, a novelty shower was given on Friday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. O. Sully, 38 St. James street. She was the recipient of many handsome remembrances. Those present were mostly girl friends from the staffs of the N. B. Telephone Company, and The Telegraph and Times. Another shower recently given for Miss Cully was at the home of Miss Lena Scott, St. James street, and at both she received heartiest good wishes and many nice presents.

RECITAL MUCH ENJOYED.
An enjoyable twilight recital in Centenary Methodist church on Saturday afternoon was well attended. It afforded distinct pleasure to all present. Miss Hies gave several selections on the piano, a duet was given by Mrs. A. P. Crockett and C. B. Skilton; solos by Miss Blenda Thomson and Mrs. Helen Watson Neumann of New York, and a violin duet by Mrs. H. H. MacMichael and Mrs. T. J. Gunn, with Miss Hies accompanying on organ. The recital was under the auspices of the Doorkeepers' Circle, King's Daughters' Guild, and the proceeds were in aid of their work among the poor.

MISSING YOUNG MAN IS SAFE.
Woods Were Being Searched For Joseph McCrossin

While more than a dozen men anxiously scoured the woods in the vicinity of Beaver Lake during last night, Joseph McCrossin, aged about nineteen years, returned to his home near the head of Brussels street about noon. He went into the woods about five o'clock last night and when he did not return there was much anxiety concerning him, as it was feared he had been lost.

Mrs. McCrossin, his mother, who had been with him during the day, remained with friends near the lake last night. Meanwhile men searched through the woods and continued their search all this morning. Young McCrossin, however, had not completely lost his way, but had to come out of the woods at another point and, thinking his mother must have returned, he came home at once this morning, walking almost all the way. In learning of the search being made for him he at once set out upon his return to Beaver Lake, and he will be pleased to know of his being safe.

FEELING REFERENCE TO MAJOR DUVAL IN SOLDIER'S LETTER.

Mrs. M. J. McBrearty, 278 Waterloo street, has received a letter from her son, Private Simon McBrearty, who with the No. 1 Field Ambulance of the 1st Canadian Contingent in France. It was written on Sept. 21 and makes a feeling reference to the late Major Duval in whose company he was when the major was wounded. A portion of the letter follows:—

"My Dear Mother:—

"I am well and taking things as they come. I have just finished dinner, and as I sit here listening to a bombardment going on down the line, my thoughts are running in two channels. One is as to whether that bombardment will drift up to our part of the line, thereby bringing us up to mix in it, and the other channel carries me to good old foggy St. John. As this letter train of thought is the most pleasant and agreeable I will drop the other and ask as to how you all are at home. We keep fairly well posted on the various events that take place for some one of the boys at the time, and they are passed around. I read a very nice article about our late officer, Major Duval, in a St. John paper recently. The news of his death came as a shock to us though he was pretty badly hurt when carried away from us, yet he was getting on fine in the hospital and we all hoped for his recovery. Then we heard of his release and death.

"It came as a blow to us, for he was our major, and the only officer who came with us from St. John. His death may well be an inspiration to us, for he went up to the line with us that morning and even took a hand at the stretchers, sending no one where he would not go himself. He gave his life for the sake of rescuing others for the wounds he received here caused his death later. I think we have all changed more or less, those who came through that battle, for, although we had been under fire before, that was our first real battle, and one we shall never forget. Yet the hardest part of it is when one is going into action or being back expecting to be called up when he can hear the crash and tumult for in the actual engagement a fellow doesn't pay so much attention to anything more than what is taking place right around him."

SIEGE BATTERY LIKELY FILLED IN FAST TIME

Enrollment Today at Partridge Island — Now Talk of Whole Company of Travelers

There is every indication that the new siege battery now in process of mobilization in the city and likely to be commanded by a former St. John man, Major Barker, will be filled in record time. Applications received by Lieutenant Col. Armstrong, O. C. the 8th artillery are most numerous and the most select and capable will be accepted. Enrollment will take place this afternoon at Partridge Island. Arrangements are now being made for the quartering of the major portion of the unit, at least, on the island, with a renovation of some of the buildings there for that purpose.

Fine Type of Men

Every effort is to be made to have only the best type of men possible. Up to the present there have been many instances of young men giving up excellent positions and leaving some of the best homes in the city to enlist with this battery. The intention is to make this what will really be a "paid" unit.

Travelers' Platoon

It is possible that instead of a platoon of 55 men from among the ranks of the commercial travelers' joining the 8th Battalion, a company comprising 250 men may be organized. The matter is being considered. An encouraging start has been made with about twelve men already enrolled. At Saturday night's meeting of commercial travelers further impetus to the idea of having a company of their number was given in an announcement by T. H. Estabrooks that he would be pleased to make good the expenses of the recruiting up to $1,000 if that sum were required. He gave an address in which he said he thought it would be possible to get a travelers' company. Lieut. A. J. Brooks also made a speech on recruiting. W. A. Stewart was chairman and T. E. Simpson secretary.

To Join Battery

Robin Johnson, son of Conductor Johnson, of the C. P. R., is in the city from Sudbury, Ont., where he was engaged in engineering with the same corporation. He comes to join the siege battery.

8th Appointment.

Friends of Lieut. W. H. Teed of this city, will extend congratulations upon his appointment to a lieutenancy with the 8th Battalion. He left this morning for England to take up his duties. Lieut. Teed is a graduate of the U. N. B. and of King's College Law School, and has numerous friends who will wish him well in his new post. He is a son of Rev. A. W. Teed, bursar at King's College, Windsor, N. S., and will be admitted to the bar of New Brunswick next month.

Signal School.

Sergt. Instructor Dean of Halifax arrived in the city this morning and will this evening open a school of instruction in signalling in the armory. The classes will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Any young men wishing to take this course should present themselves at the armory at that hour.

CHINESE CASE CONTINUED

The Chinese case was continued in the police court this morning. George A. Henderson, clerk of the police court, was called. In answer to Inspector Wickham, who is conducting the prosecution, he recognized one of the defendants, Hop Lee, as the Chinese who was convicted in the police court last June for having opium in his premises in Mill street.

Detective Barrett told of finding a pipe still hot. This closed the case for the prosecution. Burton L. Geerow, for the defendants, called Hum Quong to testify. The case was to be continued this afternoon.

PLEAD GUILTY

In the police court this morning William Matheson and Albert Connell, two young men of Somerset street, pleaded guilty of stealing a horse, a set of harness and a carriage.

On last Friday night they took a horse which was pasturing in a field off Military road and owned by William Hogan, and after securing a set of harness in John Kelly's barn in Somerset street, went to Sherbrooke street, where they took possession of a carriage. They then started off for Calais. All night they drove and after tying their horse they deserted it and started to walk to St. George. When they arrived there they were taken into custody. They were brought to the city by Detective Barrett and Assistant Detective Briggs.

WANTS ST. JOHN IN IT

The honorary secretary of the Canadian Municipalities has appealed to Mayor Frink asking him to have the city's membership in the union, which was allowed to lapse several years ago, renewed.

MOTOR TRIP

After a pleasant automobile trip, L. R. Ross, I. C. R. terminal agent, and W. H. McQuade, proprietor of the Grand Union, returned home on Saturday. They toured through the New England states, and also saw the World's Series games in Boston.

Tailored Suits

This is the month when milady will give much thought to the question of choosing a "tailored suit." And more than ever will she be interested in the advertising in The Telegraph and Times.

That advertising becomes to her very important news.

It tells her about colors and cloths and styles—tells her whether skirts are to be wide or narrow—and above all else gives her an idea of prices and values.

When she comes to make her important purchase the woman who has read the advertising will do better than her sister who did not post herself.
