

New Testament Exegetics. The Rev. Robert A. Falconer, B. D., was appointed for three years as lecturer in subjects connected with this Chair.

The Presbyterian College, Halifax, is thus the outcome of the combined educational efforts of the various Maritime Presbyterian bodies, once sundered but now happily united. The three streams form one river; the three strands compose one cord. A review of the past furnishes the Church with good ground for the belief that an institution, which since its inception has had within its walls a total of 277 students, which has supplied two-thirds of the ministers on the present roll of the Maritime Synod, and which has sent out a noble band of foreign missionaries, has a record of which it need not be ashamed, and has yet a great work to accomplish.
