Widow of Hon. David Mc-Lellan Passes Away Aged 84

LEAVES RECORD IN COMMUNITY WORK

Prominent in Helping Orphans and in Other Activities

Mrs. Fanny B. McLellan, widow of Hon. David McLellan and mother of former Mayor Harry R. McLellan, J. Verner McLellan, Registrar of Deeds and Records and Mrs. F. J. Harding, died at her home, Lorraine Apartments, 148 Germain street soon after noon today. She would have been 84 years old tomorrow.

day. She would have been 34 years old tomorrow.

Mrs. McLellan was a daughter of the late Henry and Ann Richards and besides a sister, Mrs. Robt. LeB. Stevens of Boston, the other surviving immediate relatives are grandchildren—David W. McLellan of North Carolina, Harold McLellan of this city and Royden McL. Harding of San Paulo, Brazil. Jarvis O. McLellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Verner McLellan, gave his life in an aeroplane accident while on active service in the Great War.

Mrs. McLellan had been gradually inking for several weeks. Since her partial incapacitation about two years are the failed to regard in her accustomed vigor, but neveral heless participated somewhat in her ifelong activities in benevolent circles, a which province-wide work she was realized to fulfill terms of the contract for a fight between Dempsey and highly efficient.

when the scope of the N. B. Protestant Orphans' Home was greatly enlarged a few years ago by the addition of the branch institution in West Saint John and later by the merger with the Wright street orphanage, Mrs. McLellan, in spite of her advanced age, went into the big effort with the enthusiasm and consecration so familiar traits in her character. The new quarter-million dollar home on the Manawagonish road is today as much a monument to her fervent zeal as to any other who worked for it in New Brunswick.

OTHER ACTIVITIES.

With the work of the Children's Aid, Women's Baptist Missionary Union, Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary activities, and all public welfare movements for years Mrs. McLellan was prominently identified. During the political career of her late husband Mrs. McLellan was a charming hostess and helpful consort. Many uncestentatious deeds of charity may now be recalled to the credit of the estimable lady, who to her last days was mindful of Saint John's less fortunate ones.

The children were at their mother's bedside when the last summons came.

Dr. Jr. M. Manning, vice president of the N. B. Protestant Orphans' Home directorate, speaking for the executive in the absence of President D. C. Clark who is in British Columbia, said he felt he voiced the feelings of his workfellows in the orphanage when he said Mrs. McLellan's place on the board would be most difficult to fill. She appeared to have been one of the chief instruments in the hands of the Deity in helping get the institution solidly established and then for all these useful years in helping maintain it. Her heart and hand were in the work continually. Truly Mrs. McLellan was the orphans' friend.

Amazed To Find His Car Had Burned Up

SHEDIAC, Nov. 3 — When Charles Wood, a motor car mechanic, went to get his automobile yesterday morning he was amazed to find it in ruins. Sunday night he drove out to the power station of the Shediac Light and Power Company, on the Scoudouc River, about a mile and a half from town, to operate the plant for the night. While he was at work the car caught afire from some unknown cause, but no person observed the blaze.

Diocesan Executive Today

It was decided this morning at a meeting of the executive of the Fredericton Diocesan Sydnoy to hold the next annual meeting of the Synod in Fredericton, beginning on April 20, 1926. The advisability of pooling the traveling expenses of the members of the Synod was discussed after the reort of the committee had been sub-ly in favor of the establishment of a prison farm for prisoners sentenced to long terms, and the chairman of the committee, Rev. J. V. Young, was asked to appoint a sub-committee to bring this mat er to the attention of Premier Baxter, urging action.

Conditions which prevail in the jails of the province were discussed and the keeping of prisoners in idleness for long periods was specially deplored.

TANGLED CAMPAIGN

The election, conducted on non-partisah lines, was the climax of the most tangled campaign in the city's history. The large number of candidates was due to the fact that Boston does not hold a primary contest to select its municipal candidates, and the names of all office seekers able to secure 3,000 signatures on nomination papers, go on the ballot on election day.

In the neighboring city of Cambridge, Mayor Edward W. Quinn was re-elected mayor for a fifth term of two years, defeating Councilman Ralph W. Robart by 3,046 votes.

In Lynn, Ralph S. Bauer, former president of the Lynn Chamber of Commerce, was elected mayor by more than 3,000 votes over John V. Pelham, lawyer.

At the November meeting of Demonstrates and the November meeting of Demonstrates and the most chapter, I. O. D. E., this morning it was decided not to hold their annual ball this year. This decision will be regretted by many who have looked forward to the DeMonts Chapter to ball as one of the leading social events of the season. In the absence of the regent, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, the chair was occupied by the first vice-president, Mrs. J. Walter Holly. One new member, Mrs. Robert B. Buchanan, was welcomed by the presiding officer.
