GOSLIN'S BATTING RESPONSIBLE FOR WASHINGTON WIN

Drove Out Home Run and Three Singles During the Game.

TEAMS NOW TIED

Three of Giants' Pitchers Hit Hard in Fourth Contest.

Washington is baseball mad today. Yesterday the Senators with a crippled team turned on the Giants on the Polo Grounds and, displaying an attack that drove two New York twirlers from the box and had the third one started for the showers, crashed through to a well earned victory, 7 to 4. This triumph places the Senators again on even terms with the National League champions and the stage is set for another pitching duel today between Walter Johnson and Arlie Nehf.

Mogridge, veteran southpaw of the Senators, led the hard-hitting Giants well in hand until the eighth when the loss of control resulted in his retirement in favor of Marberry who held the game safe for the remaining two seasons. Three hits were the only Giants could annex off Mogridge's slow puzzling curves.

The Giants scored in the first frame on a pass and an error. The third inning, however, showed the trend of the battle. With two men on bases and two down "Goose" Goslin met the ball on the nose and the echo of that crash was heard in Washington as the ball sped like a bullet into the right field stands. This tremendous crash really won the game as it gave the Senators a big lead in view of Mogridge's effective twirling. Just to make the victory sure they kept on slugging until the curtain rang down on the fourth game of the series.

Vivian Barnes started the game for New York and he was far from effective. Nine safe hits off his offering caused his retirement for a pinch hitter in the fifth. Baldwin was on the mound for two innings and a pinch hitter removed him from the game in the seventh. Dean finished the contest.

The Giants rallied in the closing innings and scored three runs as the Senators were playing the game safe at this stage and keeping the bases empty even at the expense of a run. The regular third baseman, controlled a run to score. Two hits and an error gave the Giants a run in the ninth and two more in the tenth when the contest ended.

The Senators missed Peckinbaugh, their star shortstop, yesterday as Bludge, the regular third baseman, contributed a wild throw from his new position in the first inning which cost a run and Miller, who played third, had a bad fumble in the seventh session. Miller also failed at the bat.

Goslin's slugging with four hits in many trips to the plate and McNeely and Bludge with three each contributed to the Senators' victory. Bludge, the young Giant rookie, was the only New York player to hit consistently as he nipped the Washington twirlers for three clean drives.

The crowd again broke the record, representing a paid attendance of 48,000 and receipts of $191,972. The sellout the previous high figures of $7,400 and $186,872 for the Polo Grounds set in Monday's game.

St. John Baptist Association Members Hold Annual Meeting.

The reports given at the annual meeting of the Young Men's Society of St. John the Baptist church, last night showed that the year just closed had been one of very great success, during which the society had presented a minstrel show entertainment of exceptional merit, had had a baseball team in the field and had organized several very pleasant social events.

George McDermott, retiring president, was in the chair and the meeting, which was held in the school building of the parish, was largely successful and very enthusiastic. The membership of the society in the past year was close to 300, and it was planned to increase the numbers still more this year through a membership drive. A satisfactory balance on hand was reported.

The officers elected were as follows: President, Fred J. Barrett; vice-president, Barry O'Neill; recording secretary, Edmund Lowe; financial secretary, John M. Elmore; treasurer, Stephen Daley; trustees, Charles E. Dalton, Jeremiah McCarthy and George McDermott.

The newly elected officers were to appoint the committees for the various branches of the society's endeavors at a meeting to be held on Tuesday of next week.

WILL REGISTER FOOTBALL TEAMS

Kings County and Westmorland Leagues Eligible for Play-off.

The Kings County School League and the Westmorland School League have applied for registration with the amateur association. A. W. Corey, president of the M. B. P. A. A. U. C. said last evening that the players in these leagues would be registered and the winners of each would be eligible to play for the interscholastic rugby title of the province. In previous years it had been considered that the winners of the Interscholastic League, which is made up of Rothesay Collegiate School, St. John High and Fredericton High, were champions of the province. Last season Moncton applied for admission to this league but could not be accommodated. However, Fredericton gave Moncton a game and defeated the railway town boys. This season Westmorland formed a league, while the Kings county schools continued their league activities.

If arrangements go through there will be a post-season series among the winners of the three mentioned leagues for the championship of the province, and it is likely that the winner will try out with the Nova Scotia champions for the Maritime school title.

LARGE SUM WILL GO TO PLAYERS

Receipts From First Four World Series Games Net $339,192.51.

New York, Oct. 7.—Washington and New York players will divide a fund of $339,192.51, it was announced today after the fourth world's series game. The last from which the players receive a share of the receipts. The winners will get $146,098.68 and the losers $99,337.77.

The Giants have 26 eligible men, the Senators 23. Exact figures for each man cannot be computed now because of the practice of donating lump sums to certain ineligible players and athletes, but the approximate shares follow:

Each Washington player will receive about $4,473 if the team wins the series, but only $4,320 if it loses. If the Giants win, each player will be entitled to about $5,730, but the amount will be cut to $3,820 if McGraw's team falls.

Brooklyn and New York, second place clubs in the two leagues, will each divide $24,839.54; Detroit and Pittsburgh, finishing third, will receive $16,559.68 to split.

Remarkable Action Picture Showing Attack and Defence Moves in a Soccer Game With Head Playing Main Role

This remarkable action picture depicts a play in an English soccer game. The player on the left, attacking, used his head to send the ball in the direction of the enemy goal. The player in the middle, on the defense, shot upward to deflect the ball with his head, but missed. The defensive goalkeeper was more successful. Meeting the ball squarely with his head he drove it out of danger, as the dotted lines show.

Outstanding Features In Fourth World Series Tilt

Goslin's terrific hitting, including his second home run of the series. The sensational playing of Manager Harris, who handled 11 chances without the semblance of an error. Mogridge's effective pitching for seven innings. The throwing out of all three men by Bludge in the sixth inning.

PIRATES PICKED AS COMING TEAM

Ruth's Selections for All-American Nine are Criticized.

(United Press Sports Editor.)

New York, Oct. 7.—Babe Ruth has picked an all-American baseball team. No one will doubt the gameness of the Babe in stepping out of his regular part, but plenty will question his judgment.

The Babe should be a qualified observer and he is in a position to know ball players, but when the Swat King assumes the responsibility of putting the nine best players of the year on an all-American team, he will get more negative votes than affirmative support.

You, perhaps, feel that you can pick a better team than the Babe's. Someone else will offer a better combination than yours. The third team will be picked apart and judged inferior to the other two's team. So on.

The Babe picked as his choice for the best lineup: Cuyler, Pittsburgh, right field; Roush, Cincinnati, centre field; Jamieson, Cleveland, left field; Judge, Washington, first base; Hornsby, Cards, second base; Dugan, Yankees, third base; Peckinbaugh, Washington, shortstop; Schang, Yankees, catcher; Vance, Brooklyn, and Pennock, Yankees, pitchers.

Cuyler is a left fielder, and he's the best today in the big leagues. Ruth had the modesty not to name himself on the team, but he and Peg Young are, by a good margin, the best right fielders in the game. Roush is a fine player and a good choice, but Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker are good candidates.

Hornsby hardly could be kept off any all-American team, but how can he also offer a better combination than yours. The third team will be picked apart and judged inferior to the other two's team. So on.

MAY DROP OUT OF LEAGUE CONTESTS

Dalhousie Students Consider Withdrawal From All Intercollegiate Sport.

Dalhousie University again is talking of dropping out of intercollegiate athletics. The Halifax Chronicle recently contained the following:

The semi-annual meeting of the Dalhousie Amateur Athletic Club was held last night with a good attendance and President Sutherland in the chair. Several matters were discussed, including the advisability of Dalhousie dropping out of intercollegiate sport. The arguments put forward for this action were the unsatisfactory manner in which the various leagues have been carried on during late years, and the great expenditure necessary to carry out the schedules.

A large number present were in favor of having only the two teams, first and second, in the City Football League, as the formation of the Intercollegiate team upset the balance of the league on the City League team, and destroyed the combinations they were used to. When the motion was put to the meeting, it was decided by a scant majority not to take any action until after the Intercollegiate Conference, which takes place shortly. St. Francis Xavier are desirous of entering the Western Section of the League and this may cause Dalhousie to forsake the Eastern Section also.

ANY OLD TIME THAT "ONE EYE" CAN'T CRASH A GATE, THERE WON'T BE ANY SERIES

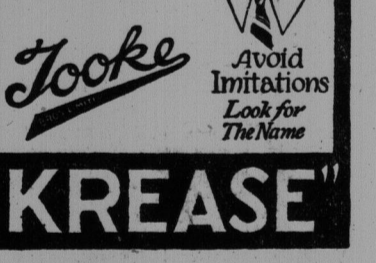

"One-Eye" Connolly, the most famous gate-crasher of the age, bet John McDraw he would see all the world series games without paying a penny. And here's Connolly inside the Washington ball grounds for the first game.

ON THE MATTER OF THE CHAMPION, WALKER CAN SIGN TOMORROW TO BOX SHADE FOR A CONSIDERABLE SUM OF MONEY IN A BOUT THAT WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY DEVELOP INTO A MATCH LONG TO BE REMEMBERED. YET THE POPULAR WALKER PERSISTS IN DODGING THE ISSUE WITH HIS FOREMOST CHALLENGER UNTIL HE FINDS HIMSELF IN DANGER WITH THE AUTHORITIES AND EXPERIENCING A GRADUAL DIMINUTION IN THAT POPULARITY WHICH EVERY BOXER DESIRES.

If it was any other boxer than Walker, perhaps this persistent side-stepping of a contender and his challenge to battle might be attributed to timidity; in the case of any other boxer but the Walker who battered Barrett into a state where the challenger had to be assisted from the ring, the shorter and uglier word fear might be applicable. But there is no sane reason for supposing that Walker fears Shade, or any other boxer at or near his level. Walker undoubtedly has his own private reasons for ignoring Shade, and they may be sound or the opposite. It is to be hoped, however, that the popular lad from Elizabeth may see the light without delay and agree to a bout against Shade, where he may justify the confidence his legion of admirers places in him.
