Churches Honor Those Who Fell

Memorial Window in St. Matthews Unveiled—Honor Rolls Read in Ceburg and Exmouth Street Churches

A beautiful memorial window in honor of the members of the congregation who gave their lives in the great war was unveiled in St. Matthews' Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. Addresses were given by Rev. W. L. Thompson and the minister, Rev. H. L. Eason, and Bayard Stillwell was heard in an appropriate solo. The window, which was presented by the members of the Enterprise and Progressive Clubs, stands as a lasting memorial to Q. M. Sergeant, W. E. Mason, Private W. N. Belyea, Private T. N. Parker and Sergeant K. Garnett.

There was an impressive memorial service in the Ceburg street Christian church last evening in honor of the men killed in action during the war, the list including six of the thirty-two who enlisted. The pastor, Rev. P. M. Appleman, delivered the eulogy. Those honored were George Boone, Roy Powell, Fred Currie, Chester Johnson, Kenneth Garnett and John Leary.

The long honor roll of members and adherents of the church who had served in the overseas forces during the war was read at the evening service in Exmouth street church last evening by the pastor, Rev. G. F. Dawson, who spoke on "The Church and the Soldier." The list included seven who gave their lives, as follows:—Albert Drake, S. A. Dawson, J. W. Thomas, John Vernon, Frank W. Withers, J. W. McIntyre, and Harry McDonald.

Ludlow Street Church Renovated. The Ludlow street Baptist church was re-opened yesterday after undergoing an extensive remodeling and renovation. For the first time their new organ, formerly in Calvin church, was used with fine effect, especially at the evening service, when music formed an important part of the service. On this occasion solos were sung by Samuel Holder, David Allan, a quartette consisting of Messrs. Holder, Burtt, Smith and Gardner, was heard and the choir, under the direction of the organist, Miss M. E. Mullin, rendered several anthems. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Robinson, preached in the morning and Rev. Peter McArthur of Glasgow, Scotland, in the evening.

Palmer's Farewell. After more than nine years of successful service, Rev. P. H. Wentworth preached his farewell sermon last evening in the Waterloo street United Baptist church. The church was filled to the doors. Mr. Wentworth and family leave on Wednesday for Quebec city, where he assumes charge of a new church recently erected.

Exmouth street church has decided that all pews shall be free after Easter Sunday.

Large numbers of soldiers and sailors were entertained at the social services in St. David's and Germania street churches last evening.

Beautiful things are everyday things now—

Look around you. See the large number of dainty silk blouses in beautiful tints that are being worn. And the quantities of dainty underwear the stores are showing—sheerest, most beautiful things you have ever seen. It was not so a few years ago. What has caused the difference?

Certainly and surely—one big factor has been Lux. Women would not buy these things right along unless there was a gentle, sure way of washing them—without discoloring, warping or fading.

There is—it's the Lux way. Won't turn silks yellow—won't hurt chiffons—won't shrink woollens. Lux won't hurt anything that pure water itself may touch.

C. P. R. AND DAYLIGHT SAVING

It has been decided by all railways in Canada in order to protect their international connections to advance all railway clocks and watches in Canada one hour at 2 a. m. on Sunday, March 30th, to be in accord with United States action in regard to daylight saving time.

The change is also made necessary in order to protect commuters' traffic into the larger Canadian cities that have signified their intention of adopting daylight saving time and avoid conflict between through trains and commuters' trains.

Effective on and after Monday March 30th all Canadian Pacific trains in New Brunswick will be moved on Eastern Standard Daylight Saving Time, which will mean that their arrivals and departures will be in each case one hour earlier than at present.

To demonstrate—The McAdam train which now leaves St. John at 7.40 a. m. local time, will after Sunday next leave at 6.40 a. m. local time. Corresponding earlier arrival and departure will be made by all other trains with the exception of the early morning train from Fredericton which, for the convenience of commuters coming into St. John, will be run one hour later pending adoption of daylight saving time in St. John. This train will therefore reach St. John at 8.55 a. m. local time the same as at present.

The same arrangement applies to the S. S. Express between St. John and Digby, that is, the boat will leave at 6.00 a. m. instead of 7.00 and will arrive at 4.00 p. m. instead of 5.00 a. m. as at present.
