This latter the servatives—not only by the use of money and other corrupt arguments familiar to the "Manitoba methods" of the Borden-Rogers government—but also by catching the remnants of the Nationalist vote with a cry against the Canadian navy is now plain. A couple of days before the election the riding was flooded with copies of a campaign sheet entitled "L'Opinion," which was issued and paid for with Tory money. Its main object was to make it appear that the Laurier naval policy was designed to offer Great Britain "a tribute of blood" from the Krench Canadians, and especially from the Krench Canadians.

On the other hand this campaign, imitation newspaper carefully insinuated the impression that the Borden naval policy was one by which Canada's whole obligation to the mother country would be wiped out with an emergency present of $$6,000,000 and that thereafter there would be no fear of Canadians being plunged into naval preparations.

In 1911, Bourassa and his Nationalist followers, whose campaign was paid for by the Jingo-Tories of Montreal and Ontario, attacked the Laurier naval policy, declaring that it would mean conscription and the dragging of good French-Canadians to be disembowelled on British warships, fighting in foreign wars. In Chateauguay this policy was modified to a denunciation of the "tribute of blood" and an intimation that Mr.. Borden's policy of sending a few million dollars to buy empty warships was the best way out of the problem of Imperial defence.

Next this Tory campaign sheet quotes Hon. G. P. Graham as saying in the same debate "What do these French-Canadians think of a government which wishes to give to the empire aid in money, and WHICH REFUSES.

OUR LIVES FOR ITS DEFENCE" and "announcing that they have money the best way out of the problem of Imperial defence.

The parts would itch, burn and tingle, and then when rubbed or scratched, would become very painful. When the knee got warm, it burned worse, and the itching and burning and smarting were almost unbearable. I tried various remedies, but got ne better, so I deeided to go to Montreal and take special treatment. I received treatment at the Montreal General Hospital for thirteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was not cured, and almost gave in. A friend advised me to give Zam-Buk a trial. "Almost as soon as applied Zam-Buk stopped the itching and the irritation. I persevered with the balm, and it was soon evident that it would do me good. Each day the pain was reduced, the sore spots began to heal, and by the time I had used a few boxes of Zam-Buk I was quite cured. "Since then Zam-Buk has cured blood-poison in my finger, and at a time when my finger was in such a terrible condition that I feared it would have to be amputated."

For eczema, blood-poisoning, piles, ulcers, sores, abscesses, varioose ulcers, bad leg, cold sores, chapped hands, outs, burns, bruises and all skin injuries and diseases, Zam-Buk is without equal.

GRFAT TELESCOPE FOR CANADA

World's Largest to Be Made by Firms In the United States

An Ottawa despatch says that Canada will be able to boast possession of the largest reflecting telsecope in the world. Where it is to be erected has not been finally decided, but it is not improbable that it will be placed in the vicinity of the present Dominion Observatory at the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa.

An order-in-council has been passed awarding the contract for the mechanism to Warne and Swassey of Cleveland, and for the mirror to the John A. Brasheau Co., of Pittsburg, the firms who supplied the telescope now in use by the astronomical branch of the Interior Department. The contract price for the telescope completed is $90,500.

The mirror, which is to be six feet in diameter, will be twelve inches greater in dimension than the largest now in commission. It will be moulded in France and owing to its great mass the glass cast will require eight months to

Examine your skin closely

See if the pores have become large and clogged, if it has lost its smoothness, if it has grown colorless. These conditions of the skin are a natural result of the constant strain imposed upon it during the winter months when we eat heavy foods and take almost no exercise. Each Spring, the skin needs refreshing.

How to refresh your skin

Wash your face with care and take plenty of time to do it. Lather freely with Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub in gently until the skin is softened and the pores open. Then rinse several times in very cold water, or better still, rub with a lump of ice.

Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of an authority on the skin and its needs. This treat-ment with Woodbury's cleanses the pores, then closes them and brings the blood to the surface. You feel the difference the first time you use it. Woodbury's Facial Soap costs 25c a cake. No one hesitates at the price after their first cake. Go to your dealer's today and get a cake. Have you ever noted how an audience vawns in the face of an uninspired speaker?

On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm?

Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast.

This applies to the written word also -- particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious - his audience - the readers of the newspaper-will, figuratively speaking, 'lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have!

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising: Three mighty forces, close-linked.
