HYMENEAL.

MAYBERRY—NANCEKIVELL.

Despite the inclemency of the weather on Wednesday evening, Dec. 28, a goodly number of invited guests assembled at Cherry Grove Farm, the home of Mr. Reuben Nancekivell, of Dereham. The occasion was the marriage of his daughter, Martha Reubena, to Mr. Herbert Geo. Mayberry of West Oxford, thus uniting two of Oxford's most promising citizens, and bringing into closer relations two of the largest family connections in the district. The high esteem in which the honored couple are held was made evident by the numerous costly gifts. Placed among these was a valuable gold watch and chain, the present of the groom to his bride. At the hour of 6 o'clock the guests to the number of about 60 assembled in the parlor and hall awaiting the appearance of the bride party. Friends and relatives were present from Toronto, Woodstock, London, Stratford, Ingersoll and surrounding country.

Presently in response to the skilled touch of Miss Plescia Collins of Toronto the wedding march pealed forth its inspiring tone and the groom, accompanied by the groomsmen, appeared descending the staircase. Following them at an interval came the bridesmaid tastefully dressed in cream tulle and carrying in her hand a shower bouquet of pink roses. Lastly but not least came the bride handsomely attired in cream tulle and lace, with pearl ornaments, and draped with a large veil. She appeared leaning on the arm of her father and carrying in her hand a shower bouquet of white roses.

Upon entering the prior the contracting parties took their places under a luxuriant arch of cedar and mistletoe overhung in artistic fashion with white bunting, while the Rev. Mr. Harnwell of Dereham in his usual pleasing yet fervent style pronounced them man and wife. After the numerous congratulations of friends and relatives the bride party led the way to the dining room, where tables were spread laden with the delicacies of the season, and capable of appeasing the most acute appetite. The dainties were served to the entire satisfaction of all by the ladies of Ebenezer choir of which the bride had been a faithful member. At the conclusion of the first table a toast was offered by the pastor in which a glowing tribute was paid to the happy couple in appreciation of their intrinsic worth. His remarks were substantiated by a few well chosen words from Mr. Wm. Nancekivell, of Dereham and ex-Warden of the county, though he felt it difficult to express his esteem in full, being conscious of his close relations.

After the evening's repast all gathered in the sitting room to listen to a spirited programme of instrumental music, songs, speeches and recitations given by friends from a distance, assisted by local talent. About the hour of 12 o'clock the newly married couple left for their home near Salford attended by the best wishes of their many friends, amid a shower of rice.

To an eye-witness the closing scene was somewhat solemn, especially to one acquainted with the harmonious life of the family. For it was with painful pleasure that her parents allowed one of the weaker members to leave the old home nest.

"Where the crown of stars is broken in parts,
Its jewels brighter than the day,
Have one by one been stolen away
To shine in other hearts and homes!"
—Longfellow—

As "life flits by on Lyndhurst Farm,
May love retain its sacred charm,
Bind heart to heart to-day made one,
To love and cherish dear old home."

When trials come, as come they will,
While passing through time's care,
Fraught mill,
May both confide their trust in God
Lean on his arm, forbear his rod.

Strife shall never cross their way,
If Christ's commands they will obey.
And time shall pass in sweet accord,
Following the precepts of their Lord.

To aid in this their natures blend,
Peace, harmony and joy to lend,
Her constant, quiet, retiring face
Shall cool the flush of manly grace.

Then when life's transient scenes are o'er,
While nearing Canaan's happy shore,
They'll hear the Saviour's welcome voice,
"Well done," for Heaven has been your choice.

CHOICE OF SPEAKER

House Will Elect R. F. Sutherland, Member for North Essex.

E. N. LEWIS DISQUALIFIED

West Huron's Representative Surety For a Contractor—That Scotch At Napanee—Mr. Whitney Waxes Indignant Over the Publicity—That Coalition Offer—He Received It in a Rather Roundabout Way.

Ottawa, Jan. 4.—Robert Franklin Sutherland, member for North Essex, will be Speaker of the House of Commons. His election will take place when the popular Chamber convenes on the 11th inst. The Government have held that it is the turn of an English-speaking Canadian to preside over the House, a French-speaking Canadian having now occupied the office for four years. It is an unwritten rule that if an English-speaking member is Speaker of the House the corresponding position in the Senate shall be held by a Senator from Quebec. Who the man from the sister Province will be is not yet known, but Hon. Raoul Dandurand's name is one of those mentioned. As Speaker of the House nobody doubts that Mr. Robert Sutherland will be all that the office demands. He is a man of judicial mind and firm character, and a good lawyer to boot. Mr. Sutherland is a native of Newmarket, where he was born in 1859. He received his education at the Newmarket Public School, the Windsor High School and Toronto University. He is a B.A. and a K.C., and was first elected to the House in 1900. He is prominent in the public affairs of Windsor. Mr. Sutherland is a Presbyterian elder.

The Deputy Speaker of the House will not be chosen until after the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, and Mr. Chas. Maclell, the popular and eloquent member for Bonaventure, may be appointed.

Member Disqualified. Ottawa, Jan. 4.—It is now said that E. M. Lewis, Conservative member-elect for West Huron, is disqualified from taking his seat, owing to his having given security for Thomas Gundry, mail carrier. If there is a bye-election Robert Holmes, ex-M.P., will be the Government candidate.

Cross Petition Filed. Halifax, Jan. 4.—F. A. Lawrence, member-elect for Colchester County, Nova Scotia, whose return was petitioned against, has filed a cross-petition against S. E. Gourley, ex-M.P., for disqualification on the ground of corrupt practices by himself or agents.

THAT SCOTCH.

Mr. Whitney Waxes Indignant Over the Publicity—That Coalition Offer.

Cornwall, Jan. 4.—Mr. J. P. Whitney addressed a well-attended meeting held in the Music Hall here last night in the interests of Mr. George Kerr, Conservative candidate for Cornwall and Stormont, who is leading a forlorn hope against a Liberal stronghold manned by aggressive fighters under the leadership of Mr. McCart, the victor by a handsome majority in the last election. The features of the Opposition leader's address were his references to coalition and to a recent occurrence at Napanee. In regard to the former, he read a carefully-prepared statement, as follows:

"About two years and a half ago The Globe suggested that a coalition would be advisable. I believe Mr. Ross knew this editorial would be published. The day after the appearance of this editorial I was asked by one Minister of the Crown whether I would meet another Minister of the Crown and discuss coalition. I did so, with the result that the suggestion or proposition was declined by me."

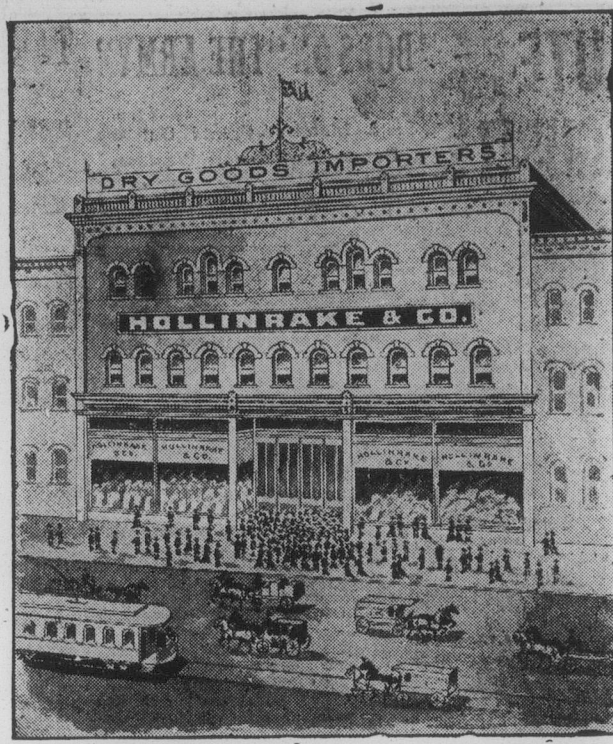

"Nearly a year afterwards, while the Gamey-Stratton investigation was going on, at the invitation of a gentleman not in public life, I again discussed the matter with the same Minister with the same result."

"About a month ago a personal friend informed me that the proposition of a coalition was still open, and that if acted upon I would in all probability become the leader of the Government in about a year. My friend informed me that he had this message for me from a very prominent Conservative in Toronto, who had received it from a prominent Liberal known in financial circles in the city who had received it from a very prominent Liberal Senator well known also in financial circles in Toronto."

That Scotch At Napanee.

In reference to the statements in certain newspapers regarding an incident that happened in the town of Napanee, he said in part: "When the meeting in that town was over I went to my hotel. I went upstairs to my room, and stayed there until the next morning. While in my room I availed myself of the rights and privileges of a guest of the house, and I am not going to apologize for anything I have done. (Applause.) It is said that a number of men were roystering in the house, and that the bar was kept open until morning. It might have been. I do not know I was not in the bar."

"It would be a strange thing indeed if I, the chosen leader of the majority of the people of the Province of Ontario, whose life has been like an open book to this country for years should be called upon by a set of creatures whom I would not name to reply to a scandalous action like that. (Applause.) When I have to defend myself against charges like that, then the time has come when I shall hesitate no longer to hold the position of a political leader—the leader of the dominant party in my native Province of Ontario." (Prolonged applause.)
