Freight Charges on Flour for the Orient Goes Up.

San Francisco, Aug. 30 .- Flouring men are angry over the raise of fifty per cent. in the rates for flour on the China line. A shipping man said: "The Pacific Mail and Occidental & Oriental companies had to follow the raise of the Cana-dian Pacific and Northern Pacific comnanies. This statement may seem some hat strange on its face, but the explanation of it is readily offered. In the first place the low rate on flour was the result of the Canadian Pacific's fight against the local companies, the latter being obliged to meet every cut.
