ST. ANDREWS. June 3.—Captain John o'Halloran left by steamer last Friday, en route to New York, to bring here Sir William Van Horne's yacht Ulvira, purchased by him last fall from Vice Commodore Doremus of the Atlantic Yacht club. The Ulvira was designed by William Fife, jr., and built by Black & Co. at Southampton in 1890. She races in the 51 foot cluss, or class K. She measures 50 feet over all, 42 feet 2 inches on the water line, 11 feet 4 inches extreme beam and 9 feet 4 inches draft. Out of ten races in which she competed last year the yacht won six first prizes. She will be sailed part, at least, of the coming season in Passama, quoddy Bay and adjacent waters for the pleasure and amusement of members of Sir William's family and their guests.

The Calais, Me., correspondent wrote as follows to the Bangor Weekly Commercial of May 24th: "The first instance of the enforcement of the alien contract labor contract law eccurring in this city (Calais) in years caused considerable comment along the border last week, when Patrick McNamara, landscape gardener, was notified that complaint had been made that he was working on this side of the line in violation of the law above referred to. Mr. McNamara, who is a thorough workman, lives on the Canadian side of the boundary line, but has frequently been employed over here, when first class work was required. Recently E. B. Todd, desirous of having his grounds improved so as to keep in harmony with his beautiful residence on Main street, engaged Mr. McNamara to do the work. The latter had his contract well started when two or more American citizens who can push lawn mowers in A1 style, decided that he was infringing upon their rights, so they invited the aid of the law and had the infunctious and capable Patrick served with notice to quit. The latter thought the matter over quietly, then shouldered his tools and headed for home, leaving his work in a condition that is far from leaviful."

WAS ARRESTED.

A St. John Commercial Traveller's Experience in Charlottetown.

Had a License, But the Inspector Said

(Charlottetown Guardian, June 5.) George Hastings Palmer, represent-ing W. H. Scovil & Co. of St. John, N B., manufacturers' agent, landed in Summerside on 21st May, and duly prepointed by the government for collect-ing the commercial travellers' tax — Jas. C. Wright-presenting Mr. Scovil's certificate to do business on the island. This certificate bears date October 9th, 900, and is good for one year. Mr. Wright at once endorsed the certificate s entitling Mr. Palmer to go on with his work.

Thus armed with authority, Mr. Palner proceeded to transact business in erside, Alberton, Tignish and other places, and on Thursday night, 30th May, came to Charlottetown and registered at the Hotel Davies. On Saturday morning, June 1st, Inspector Campbell came into the sample room where Mr. Palmer was at work and demanded to see his license. The do-cument was at once produced, Mr. Campbell said the license was no good and Mr. Palmer must pay $20 and take out another, or be liable to a fine of 200. This Mr. Palmer refused to do. as he had a license already. Mr. Campbell said he would make him pay, and went out.

Half an hour afterwards while Great George street, in front of the Cathedral, Mr. Palmer was arrest the sheriff of Queens county and taken to the provincial building. The premier being absent, Mr. Palmer given the alternative of going to or furnishing bonds for $40, being the amount of license fee and $20 for costs. The necessary sureties were found and in this way Mr. Palmer escaped being locked up. Mr. Palmer was formerly well-known on the island, having been on the road for a long time. So long ago as 1873 and down to 1882 he travelled the island regularly every six months. He then went on the Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Newfoundland route Brunswick and Newfoundland route and has been continually travelling. This eventful trip was his first return to the island, and he is naturally indig-nant over the manner in which he has been treated. He has placed the mat-ter in the hands of W. S. Stewart, K. C., in order to obtain such redress as may be obtainable.

The news of Mr. Palmer's arrest was sent broadcast all over the country, and quite a sheaf of telegran came pouring in to learn the reason. From the house which he represents, from friends and from other travellers came inquiries to know what it all meant. This is what Mr. Palmer will now endeavor to find out. Just why a certificate should be good enough to so bad as to cause his arrest in Charlottetown is one of those things that no fellow can understand.

TIME WEDDINGS

POWDER MAGAZINE DESTROYED.

VALLEJO, Cal., June 5.—A magazine at the Mere Island navy yard, containing about twenty tons of smokeless powder, became ignited this morning by chemical action. The powder did not explode, but generated enough gas and smoke to force the top off the magazine. The powder is now slowly burning up. It is far removed from the black powder, and there is no danger of an explosion. The magazine is a fine one, constructed in 1857 at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars. It will be a total loss. It is located on the end of the island, and there seems to be no danger of an explosion or of damage to any other buildings.

FOR THE DEFENDANT.

Judge Bell's Decision in the Famous Wood bury-Eddy Case-

BOSTON; June 5.—'I have examined this libel with great care, both while the arguments were going on and during the trial. I think the plaintiff has sustained her case, as I have already intimated, upon the metter of publication. As regards the publication in the church, there is no evidence that anyone there understood the alleged libel as applying to the plaintiff, so that she could not recover damages upon this count, because she had shown no injury from it.

"Taking the libel itself, I see nothing which can in any fair way be said to indicate the plaintiff in the first part of the libel, The only thing in the libel, it seems to me, which can by any reasonable interpretation be said to serve as means of identification is the word widow. The words widow and widowhood occur in the latter part of the message.

"I have come to the conclusion that even that reference does not absolutely identify the plaintiff, and it seems to me that the plaintiff has not made out a case here which I can let go to the jury. I shall therefore be obliged to order a verdict for the defendant."

With these words, in the superior court, with these words, in the superior court, Judge Charles U. Bell this afternoon brought to a sudden and unexpected end the tamous $150,000 libel suit brought by Mrs. Josephine Woodbury of Boston against the Rev. Mary Baker G. Eddy.

A few minutes later the jury was summoned. Judge Bell ordered the jury to find for the defendent, which it did in the usual form.

for the defendent, which it did in the usual form.

Counsel for Mrs. Woodbury filed exceptions on all the questions passed upon. They expect to carry the case to the supreme court.

This decision was given in response to one of two motions offered by Mr. Elder, senior counsel for Mrs. Eddy, at 12.45 o'clock, when the plaintiff rested her case. This was that a verdent for the defendant be ordered on the evidence as it stood. The other motion, which was not sustained, was that the two counts in the declaration, referring to the publications in the two Christian Science periodicals, be stricken out.

MRS. McKINLEY'S CONDITION.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Dr. Rivey made his usual nightly visit to the White House shortly after 9 o'clock, and remained about an hour and 4 half. On leaving, he said: "Mrs. McKinley is resting very comfortably now. She has gained a little this evening, but there is no marked change. She is doing very well."

While the improvement in Mrs. McKinley's condition is slight, the fact that there had been no set-back during the day, but, on the contrary, a very little gain, was very gratifying to the White House household.

Both ups and downs have marked the progress of her illness, and it is realized that whatever gain or improvement is shown may prove but temporary.

PORTLAND, Me., June 5.—The name of the man who committed suicide at White Rock Tuesday night was probably not Rear-don, but John Mulloney, as papers were found in his pockets certifying that a sea-man by that name was discharged from the steamship Roman at Liverpool, Eng., April 23 last.
