How Mrs. Shaw of Maine Was Lef

at the Asylum.

At the last meeting of the Provin-ial government an order-in-counci vas passed asking the government a tawa to take up the case of Mrs shaw, a Maine woman now a patien It the Provincial Lunatic Asylum. The acts of the case as related by Attor-icy General Pugsley show that this oman was left in the asylum ground bout midnight one night by United states Immigration Commissioner Tur-ter, and that in the woman's condithere was no other course but t ake her in. The woman belongs in he vicinity of Houlton and had been patient in the asylum at Bangor. ccording to the attorney general the Maine authorities opened up commun ations with a view to having her sent ere, contending that she was a New inswicker. Enquiries were made nat convinced the government that he unfortunate woman was an Amehean and therefore a pauper charge in the state and not entitled to be reeived here as a pauper patient. In hiew of this a definite refusal to take ler was made, and shortly after, at learly one o'clock in the morning, she has left on the asylum grounds by missioner Turner. She has since en cared for at the institution and w the federal authorities will take matter up and will endeavor ress on the Maine government that woman is a proper charge on them further that the method employed getting rid of her was not at all reditable in this civilized age.
