Creating a Disturbance. A disorderly crowd of boys made a great deal of noise at the foot of Dorchester street. Saturday evening and Policeman McNamee was called down twice to restore order. When the patrolman arrived the rowdies had dispersed and he was unable to secure any of their names.

Touring Party Here. A touring party of eighteen from Brooklyn, N. Y., under the direction of Thomas Hendrickson, arrived on the Prince Rupert Saturday afternoon and are quartered at the Victoria until Wednesday morning. Among the places which will be visited by the party will be Avondale, a pretty Kings county village on the river.

The Boston Boats. The Ransom B. Fuller brought 106 passengers from Boston via Maine ports Saturday. Good weather was reported and the steamer arrived at 6 o'clock an hour earlier than the usual time. The Calvin Austin was an hour and a half later in leaving for Boston because of the lateness of the C. P. R. train from Halifax, which brought a number of passengers. She took away about 650 for Boston direct.

Seamen's Mission Service. The song service held at the Seamen's Institute last evening, was well attended. Miss Ada Thompson presided at the piano and Miss Nellie Thompson accompanied on the violin. So far there are no signs of anything being done with regard to an investigation into the affairs of the fire department, at the monthly meeting of the safety board this afternoon. No signed petition has been presented to the chairman of the board. It remains to be seen whether any alderman will press for an investigation. New tenders will probably be called for the construction of the West Side engine house.

Winslow, the commissioner appointed by the Provincial Government to determine the amount of the bond to be furnished by the Grand Falls Power Company, on Saturday morning and Col. H. H. She leaves only one relative, a niece, Mrs. Oagle, of Fredericton, who reached the city too late to be at the bedside at the time of her death. Mrs. Oagle will remain for the funeral, which will be held from the home this morning, at 9 o'clock.

Preached in Brussels Street Church. Rev. George R. Baker, pastor of the First Baptist church of Leominster, Mass., who has been visiting his father, Mr. Charles P. In the morning Mr. Baker preached from the theme "Finding a life by taking a master." The text for his evening sermon was taken from Corin xii verse 31, "But covet earnestly the best gifts." Mr. Baker will leave Thursday or Friday for his home.

CHILDREN OBSERVE FLOWER SUNDAY IN LUDLOW ST. CHURCH

Interesting Programme Carried Out At Services Yesterday—Bouquets For Charter Members.

An interesting programme was carried out Sunday at the Ludlow street United Baptist church, when the pupils of the Sunday school observed Flower Sunday. In the morning a special children's service was conducted. The church was filled with the little ones and an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. T. A. Hoben, of Chicago University. The afternoon's service was held in the vestry of the church. Mr. R. H. Parsons in a few well chosen words welcomed the children and their friends who crowded the hall, and alluded to the day and its objects. An interesting programme of recitations, solo drills and choruses was carried out by the children under the direction of Miss M. Mullin. Mr. John F. Ring, honorary superintendent, and a worker for over 50 years, delivered an address on "Thine We Remember." He gave a brief history of the Sunday school and at its conclusion large bouquets were presented to Mrs. Isaac Beattie, Mrs. Jos. Christie and Mrs. Clarke, charter members of the church and to Mrs. John Hughes, another early member.

Banked With Flowers. The vestry was banked with flowers and the meeting was brought to a close by the superintendent appointing a committee to look after their distribution. Bouquets of a large size bearing a card with a biblical verse, the date and the names of the pastor and superintendent were given to the children to carry to old and sick people in the community of all denominations.

The service in the evening was well attended. A choir of 40 girls lead the singing. Mr. Frank McClaskey rendered "Heaven is My Home, and One Sweetly Solemn Thought, in a beautiful manner. Rev. W. R. Robinson preached an earnest sermon on the responsibility of parents and teachers. The home, he said, was the greatest institution in the world for bringing the nation to Jesus. It was greater than the Church. The Sunday school was necessary because many parents neglected moral and spiritual teaching in the home, and the training of the children had therefore to be conducted by the teachers. Canada's greatest asset consisted of her boys and girls who would in the future determine her destiny. In conclusion he urged the parents present to be more faithful in the discharge of their duties towards their children and thereby help to build up the moral life of the nation.

FIRST CHILD FROM POLICE COURT TO GOOD SHEPHERD HOME

Gertie Coveney Sent To Institution Saturday By Judge Ritchie—Mother Will Allow Her To Remain.

Little Gertie Coveney, the ten-year-old girl, who pleaded guilty to stealing a pocketbook containing $6, was sent by Judge Ritchie on Saturday to the Home of the Good Shepherd. The little girl is now in the Waterloo St. institution, and is in company with more than forty children, who have been placed in the home by relatives. The Coveney girl is the first child who has reached the Good Shepherd Home through the channel of the police court. She will be kept apart from the adult inmates, who have been sentenced to confinement at the home, many of whom are undesirable. The parents of the girl seem content to allow her to remain in her present situation, as they realize that her adventurous spirit requires curbing. Her mother called on Saturday evening and left her some clothes and a parcel of fruit, and it is likely the girl will spend some time in her present quarters.

Natural History Outing.

The last excursion of the Natural History Society this season was held on the ground of Mr. W. F. Burditt at Crouville Saturday afternoon and was attended by between seventy and eighty members. Four buck boards started from the society's rooms in the Market building at 2 o'clock and on the way to Mr. Burditt's residence visited Mr. James Foley's pottery works on the Westmoreland road, Mr. William McIntosh, curator of the society, acting as guide. On arriving at the destination, the party broke up, some of the members examining trees and flowers, while others were interested in the traces of marine fossils in the sand of the beach. After supper short addresses were delivered by Mr. McIntosh, Dr. George Matthews and Dr. G. U. Hay. A vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Burditt was tendered by Senator Ellis at the close.

Cave Canem. Travellers who use the Rothesay road, complain of a ferocious bull-dog which, they say, hides in the underbrush opposite the green houses of W. & K. Pedersen and whenever a horse passes jumps out and runs barking beneath the horse's legs, scaring it into running away or making it shy into the ditch. The owner of the dog is not known, but threats have been heard to give the animal a dose of strychnine the next time the thing occurs.

English Mail. The English mail by the Campania via New York, will arrive today at noon.

Women's Aid Committee. The regular meeting of the women's aid committee of the Home for Incurables will be held this afternoon.

POLICE CLAIM TO HAVE DISCOVERED MISS MOLLY HOLLY

May Appear As Witness In McDougall Case Today—Roy McLean And Moncton Man Also Subpoenaed.

When the case against C. Bruce McDougall, publisher of Free Speech, comes up this morning in the police court, there are expected to be interesting developments. A woman whom the police claim to be the "Molly Holly" who wrote the St. John notes seized with McDougall's correspondence and read in the police court Friday, has been subpoenaed and will give evidence. Another witness, it is said will be Mr. Roy McLean, of 53 Stanley street, an employee in the insurance office of Mr. W. M. Jarvis. It will be remembered that Miriam, the Greek vendor of Free Speech, told in his evidence of one "Roy" who worked in an insurance office, writing some of the correspondence. There may possibly be some connection between this fact and the name of the witness, Mr. McLean has been spending the last few days at Carter's Park, but will be in the city for the trial this morning. It is altogether likely that another witness from Moncton will also appear. He is said to be connected with McDougall's office in the railway town.

It is generally conceded that the accused will be committed, and that the real fight will come later on at the trial. Mr. A. J. B. Mellish, of Charlottetown, associate counsel for the defence, left Saturday morning for his home and announced that he would not return until the case came up in the higher court.

Many Residents Of Neighborhood Attended Service And Witnessed The Ceremony—His Lordship Was Preacher.

The Episcopal church, of St. James the Less was consecrated by His Lordship Bishop Richardson, yesterday in the presence of a large number of the residents of Riverside and Renforth, most of whom heard for the first time the tones of the new bell installed in the church on Thursday.

West, of Rothesay, the church warden, who read a request signed by 15 members of the church, praying the bishop to consecrate the church. Rev. A. W. Daniel, pastor of the church read the deed of consecration and His Lordship then recited the consecration service. The bishop preached from the text: "Draw nigh unto God, and He will draw nigh unto you." After the service holy communion was administered by His Lordship, assisted by Rev. A. W. Daniel, Rev. Percy Oulton, of Green, N. Y., and Rev. W. R. Hibbard, head master of Rothesay College.
